Watch for those questions you wrote on the yellow supplement. They're good.

As Usual Brownsonites Lead The Pack.

When it's sacrifice or thoughtfulness of the other "guy" you can always count on Brownson Hall being out in front. It has been that way for the good part of a century. So those returns are not a surprise;

Brownson	85	Badin	34
Zahn	47	Freshman	33
Dillon	40	St. Ed's.	28
Morr.	38	Sorin	24
Carroll	37	Alumni	19
Cav.	36	Lyons	18
Howard	35	Walsh	16
B-F.	35
TOTAL		525

These are the figures on the sheets which were handed you yesterday or the day before for names to be remembered in the Novena of Masses for the Poor Souls. If you haven't yet turned in your list, do so tonight. Nine Masses for your deceased relatives and friends..... Note who ranks last-- the PaLOOKAS!

Thanks To The S.A.C.

If the Student Council hadn't been on the job, it would have been quite difficult completing the arrangements which now permit several of the students to participate in the Catechetical Congress at Cincy, expenses paid. When the Bulletin can help out, let the S.A.C. ask and it shall receive..... John Reed speaks on "A Program of Parish Activities for the Catholic College Graduate" and George McMorrow presents "The Liturgy And Catechetics.....
Four other students are making the trip by railroad and a couple are bound they'll get there.....somehow. Godspeed them all.

"Blow" Has Two Senses.

In the good interpretation, hats off to the Linnets and their director, Arville Pester, for the fine Mass they sang in the Cavanaugh Chapel All Souls' Day for Art Tracy. Twenty freshmen, besides the Linnets, also assisted as Father Truley offered the Sacrifice for the first man of '43 to die.....A "blow" in the unconplimentary sense to the freshmen innumerable who might have been at the Mass.... and were elsewhere.

SPECIAL PRAYERS: Herb McCabe '28, father of two, seriously ill in New York. (Deceased)
Sister Carmencita, C.S.C.; Walter, 13 yr. old son of Ted Wagner, University employee; (Ill) grandmother of Dick Dunne (Car.); uncle of Walt Brennan (Dil.); Mrs. Raymond.

7¢ A Foot!

Howard Hall realized something like $11 for the Passionist Negro mission close by Birmingham, Alabama. And how are the other halls progressing? "Charity covereth a multitude of sins." Maybe that means the sinners are concentrated in Howard..... Beg pardon, into our mind pops the name Palookas.

Windy City Agape.

Howard Hall, Sunday 8:20; dining hall at 9:00. Only club members admitted.

Somebody Said.

"Those freshmen who haven't yet caught on to the loyalty of one Notre Dame man to another.....for example turning out for Art Tracy's Mass.....should wear goofy caps captioned N.G. '43." Time to get together. Show it during the NOVENA FOR THE POOR SOULS which starts
Monday at five in the Main Church.

The CATHOLIC DIGEST

(November number) will be available Monday at 20¢ if purchased from one of the students who are assisting the Bulletin in the distribution of good Catholic reading among the students..... Partial contents, "The Oxford Group," "Color In Football," "Lo Fa Hong's Insurance Policy," "Black Sheep, Good Thief," "Father Divine," "The Pauline Privilege," "Reading, Writing and Hitlerism," "Catholic Culture," "Fraud and His Libido."

Additions To The Library.

Thanks to Mrs. Samuel Junker of South Bend, a collection of books left by her late brother, Earl Dickens, have been added to the Cavanaugh, Howard and Dillon libraries.....Another "lift" for the libraries came from a Chicago reader of the Religious Bulletin. Dark school.

8. "I have grown indifferent to everything." Another objxn to frq. Comm.

ANSWER: What are you doing in college?
That'll brick for a year. You'll learn the value of an education.
