The End Of The First Quarter.

Father O'veman, the Passionist in Howard Hall, thought out this clever modernization of the Parable of the Good Samaritan.

First, the parable itself. "And behold a certain lawyer stood up tempting him; and saying: Master, what must I do to possess eternal life? But he said to him: What is written in the law? How readest thou? He answering said: Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with thy whole heart and with thy whole soul and with all thy strength and with all thy mind, and thy neighbor as thyself. And he said to him: Thou hast answered right: this do and thou shalt live. But he willing to justify himself said to Jesus: And who is my neighbor?"

And Jesus answering said: A certain young man went down to college and fell among hard-hearted professors, who also stripped him of what little he knew in the first quarterly examination, and having given him a low mark, went away leaving him half-expelled. And it chanced that a certain supercilious senior was also on his way to a diploma; and seeing him passed by. In like manner also a jejune junior, though knowing this freshman had had a pink slip sent to his parents, passed by. But a freshman being also on his journey through college, came near him: and seeing him was moved with compassion. And shutting off his favorite radio program, went to his room and bound up his wounded feelings, pouring in the oil and wine of a cheering word: and setting him upon his own "pony" brought him to the inn of hope and promised regular help. The next day he showed him how to organize the material and told him how he was used to study.

Which of these three in thy opinion was neighbor to him that fell among hard-hearted professors? But he said: He that showed mercy to him. And Jesus said to him: Go and do thou in like manner.

Recently a Sister of Providence at Saint Mary's-of-the-Woods wrote to ask your prayers for a special intention-- the beatification of the Foundress of her Order, Mother Theodore Guerin 1798-1856. Your prayers are also asked for the beatification of Father Moreau and Dujarie, founders respectively of the Fathers of Holy Cross and the Brothers of St. Joseph, now the Brothers of the Holy Cross.

There is too much talking in Church both at Benediction and during the Holy Mass. Occasionally a day-dreaming student even forgets, upon entering the Church and taking his place in the pew, to genuflect!

Father Miltner's third instalment appears tomorrow. After you've read it, if you have some questions, write them down and slip them under the door in Dil-How-Cav.

All play and no work takes all the fun out of play.

A sharp tongue and a dull mind usually occupy the same head.

All men are worth knowing; the good for your pleasure, the bad for your protection.

If more people were as afraid of hell as they are of work, the devil would be very lonesome.

The second quarter has begun. Get set.
