

Today's Unity Intention
Conversion of the Jews;
tomorrow's, Missionary....

University of Notre Dame
Religious Bulletin
January 24, 1940

....Conquest of the World.
Remembrance in Masses assured for your Exams.

The Light Goes Back On.

The way you could tell whether Father O'Hara, now Bishop, was open for business as ex-Prefect of Religion rather than President was to take a look at the Tower Room in the corner of Sorin. If the light was on, it was your cue to knock on the door at 141.

Not every night, but often from now on the light in old 141 will be on ~~again~~ and another ex-Prefect of Religion, known to many of you, especially the seniors, will be open for business.

This good news will delight every student acquainted with Father John Cavanaugh for he knows all the ins and outs and ups and downs and comings and goings; the problems and, best of all, the solutions of problems, which thread through the lives of college men.

As the University's new vice-President under Father J. Hugh O'Donnell, President, Father Cavanaugh will naturally be busy during the day and sometimes business of one sort or another will carry him away from the campus. But every free night he can spare he will be at his desk in 141 Sorin to make you feel ~~more~~ at home. Look for the light between 7:45 and 9:00.

And Other Shingles Are Cut.

It might be appropriate, for the benefit of the bashful, the heart-weary, the lonesome, those who have lost their way, the discouraged, the sorely-tried, those perplexed about their vocation in life, to restate the regular hours of the Prefect of Religion and his assistants:

Father Frank Gartland  117 Dillon Hall  7:20 A.M. to noon; 6:20 P.M. to 10.
Father Richard Grimm  106 Howard Hall  6:30 A.M. to 9:15; 7:30 P.M. to 10.
Father John Lynch  107 Cavanaugh Hall  7:05 A.M. to 9:15; 7:30 P.M. to 10.

Buzzers are conveniently located at the chapel doors of Dillon, Howard, Sorin and Cavanaugh Halls. Push them once if you desire to receive Holy Communion; twice if you wish to go to confession.

The office of the Religious Bulletin is in 117 Dillon Hall, but petitions for the students' prayers for living and deceased relatives and friends and for special intentions may be left not only in Dillon but in Howard and Cavanaugh also.

Correct Schedule Of Semester Examinations.
(January 26, 27, 29 and 30)

Classes taught at:	Examined at:	Classes taught at:	Examined at:
8:00 on Mon.	8:00 on Fri.	8:00 on Tues.	8:00 on Sat.
9:00 on Mon.	8:00 on Mon.	9:00 on Tues.	8:00 on Tues.
10:00 on Mon.	10:00 on Fri.	10:00 on Tues.	10:00 on Sat.
11:00 on Mon.	10:00 on Mon.	11:00 on Tues.	10:00 on Tues.
1:15 on Mon.	1:15 on Fri.	1:15 on Tues.	1:15 on Tues.
2:15 on Mon.	1:15 on Mon.	2:15 on Tues.	3:15 on Mon.
3:15 on Mon.	3:15 on Fri.	3:15 on Tues.	3:15 on Tues.

P.S. You can't study best if you've got a load on your mind. If you didn't make the Novena for Exams (who's to blame?) at least get to confession (if necessary) and Holy Communion every day for the rest of the semester. No one will be tommy-hawked.

PRAYERS: (DECEASED) Lemar Fitchett, friend of John Speca (Al); Michael Sweeney (Binghanton) friend of Frank Murphy (Dil); uncle of Don Connors (Merr); Rose Montean; Mr. Garois; Richard Ryan (Bstn); Robt. Hall, friend of Jim Murray (Dil); father of Art McGarr '30; Bill Evans (NYC) friend of Mike Grace (Dil); (ILL) friend of Joe Rerick.