

University of Notre Dame
Religious Bulletin Campus Edition
February 1, 1940

TOMORROW IS FIRST FRIDAY.

As an expression of thanksgiving to God that Sunday's fire was checked without any serious loss;

And as an expression of thanksgiving for the safe deliverance from Soviet hands in Poland of five priests and Brothers of Holy Cross (all Notre Dame men);

As well as in honor of the Sacred Heart, which desires special reparation and love every First Friday;

I PROMISE to assist at Mass in my chapel tomorrow morning and to receive Holy Communion;

AND I FURTHER PROMISE to spend one half-hour in Adoration before the Blessed Sacrament exposed in Sacred Heart Church. (Before retiring tonight, I shall mark my half-hour on the sheet provided for this purpose on the Bulletin-board).

There will be the usual First Friday Benediction at 7:00 and 7:30. Confessions will be heard, in preparation for tomorrow, in all halls at nightprayer; in Dillon, Howard and Cavanaugh till 10:00.

I SAVE A DIME.

By filling in the form below and presenting it, together with fifteen cents, to the Prefect of Religion or his assistants, I understand I may have a copy of the February CATHOLIC DIGEST which offers among other articles:

The Pope..... Abcard The Athenia..... Confraternity of Christian Doctrine....
Nuns In Street Clothes..... Thirteen Die..... Peg, Borrow Or Chisel.....
A Necessity Lieth On Me..... The Flight From the Cities..... Against Conscription..... Jobs on Wings..... Just War..... Reply to Jacques Maritain..... Blackout? Skywriter..... Detroit Newsboys Find A Tal..... Dead Indian..... Hammer Without Sickle..... Soldier
Priests in the French Army.....

Dear Father:

Here's fifteen cents. I want to start CATHOLIC PRESS MONTH the right way. Get me a copy of THE CATHOLIC DIGEST for February.

Sincerely yours,
