

CALLING ALL MEN TO THE NINE FIRST FRIDAYS.

It's hard to believe it, but tomorrow's FIRST FRIDAY again! Wherever you are in your string of Nine First Fridays---or even if you're beginning all over again---make it a point to offer your Mass and Holy Communion tomorrow in

REPARATION TO THE SACRED HEART.

You should be thinking, these days of Lent, how much that Heart has loved you; how heinous sin is that it should have been redeemed by the last drop of that Heart's Most Precious Blood!

During the ADORATION tomorrow, as far as you can return love for love; make some compensation to the Sacred Heart for the ignominy, insult and pain which twisted it the night before He died---when the soldiers mocked Him and struck Him and spit in His face, when the sight of your sins passed, as it were, in preview before His mind.

You can console that Heart best now by living, day by day, one day at a time, the life of a true Christian scholar and gentleman. To be that is the reason the same Sacred Heart has drawn you by grace to the campus of Notre Dame. And it follows that if you are squandering your opportunities here---your chances to improve your physical, intellectual and spiritual life---you are paining God's great Heart again.

ALL FRESHMEN TO MASS IN SACRED HEART CHURCH AT 6:20.

As tomorrow is also the Month's Mind of Bill Madel, who died in Plymouth after a bob-sled accident, a Requiem Mass will be sung for him by Father Trahey and THE LINNETS.

Let Breen-Phillips, Freshman, Cavanaugh, Brownson and Zahm turn out for that Mass to the last man. There will be four confessors on hand. Father Lynch will take care of the distribution of Holy Communion.

INDULGENCES FOR THE STATIONS.

"Anent the Religious Bulletin of February 9th, may I call attention to the latest and only official edition of indulgences: Preces et Pia Opera Indulgentiis Ditata, published by Marietti, 1938, Turin.... For the Way of the Cross:

1. A plenary indulgence. (Confession, Communion, etc. not required.)
2. Another plenary indulgence if Communion is received on the same day.
3. An indulgence of ten years for each station, to those who, after beginning the way of the Cross, are prevented by any reasonable cause from finishing.

"Wishing you every blessing from Jesus and Notre Dame for your fine work, A. Frische, S.M."

FROM AN OLD FRIEND.

"Many thanks to you and the students for the very generous spiritual bouquet, and to Webster for the beautiful rendition of their thought. Sincerely yours in Dmo.,

+ John F. O'Hara, C.S.C."
