

THE BENGALS! *** EIGHT TONIGHT! *** TWO-BITS! University of Notre Dame BE THERE!

Religious Bulletin

March 15, 1940

A Notre Dame man takes it...on the chin...for the MISSIONS!

Sixteen classy fighters.....Eight title bouts.....Sweaters, medals, mentions.....

The Bulletin cannot find enough good words in Roget's Thesaurus to thank THE SCHOLASTIC, its editor Bill Fay, assistants Foskett, Patterson, Newland et al; Promotor Lou DaPra; the fighters from the bantams on up to Tiny Lou Rymkus--and their trainer, "Nappy"; and the world's light-heavy champ BILLY CONN who is here tonight to referee; and all of you who have been filling the seats at the prelims and will crowd close to the ringside tonight.

12,000,000
souls to be won
for Our Lord....
That's BENGAL!

It is all an indescribable lift to the missionaries, catechists, Garos, Hindus, Mohammedans in Dacca, Bengal.
Father Francis P. Goodall, C.S.C. of the Holy Cross Foreign Mission Seminary in Washington sends his thanks, too-- he is Procurator of the Bengal Missions for the United States Province of the Holy Cross Fathers and Brothers. And Fathers Shea and Massart, back from Bengal for a few months, are Father Goodall's delegates.... at the ringside..... Sincerest thanks to everybody.

Today is the Feast of the Seven Dolors of the Blessed Virgin....The time for the making of the Easter Duty extends from the First Sunday in Lent to Trinity Sunday (not from Ash-Wednesday, as the Bulletin printed not long ago)....Before you leave for home, for your protection receive the Sacraments....Penny-a-day collection postponed till after the holidays....The last day you start with breakfast on the campus you are entitled to finish (dinner and supper) using your dispensation; the next day, wherever you are, you are bound by the law as observed in the diocese you are in....Adoration ends Tues.11:30.
