Telegram: RICHARD C. STUEVE '38 WAS KILLED
SATURDAY IN AN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT.....

Many of you remember Dick as a student in the college of Engineering. He spent his senior year in Alumni Hall.....The 10:00 Mass next Sunday will be celebrated for the repose of his soul.....Keep him in your prayers, Masses and Holy Communions.

Any reader who might not be prepared to meet sudden death should examine his conscience and make as perfect an act of contrition as possible; if he is a Catholic he should then make a sincere and careful confession.

* * * * *

A general confession, incidentally, is recommended for people about to change their state in life. This applies with stark literalness to many seniors.....especially those who are going to work.

The spring weather has evidently made too many residents of Alumni Hall groggy--so groggy that they have lost their sense of direction. When the church bells ring for Sunday night benediction, half of the men in that hall start strolling west to the Cafeteria or the Rockne or the road toward St. Mary's. Ah, the militant Catholic, college gentlemen about to be graduated!
Their sparkling example, their burning faith, their Catholic Action!

Rev. Doctor John A. Elbert, S.M., President of the University of Dayton, writes on HOW TO BE HAPPY IN COLLEGE in the Youth Section of yesterday's SUNDAY VISITOR.
Subcaptions follow: "Something everybody wants" -- "Can students find happiness on the campus?" -- "It is of the present." -- "Must be a student." -- "Not too much self-interest." -- "What makes happiness." -- "His keenest enjoyment." -- "The successful college student."

Novena Cards for Dad may be had at the racks in Dillon, Howard, Cavanaugh and Sorin. Final day of the Novena is Wednesday, Solemn Feast of Saint Joseph.

Captain Ted Leonas and the rest of the track squad have arranged seven Masses for Coach Nicholson to be said in the Dillon Chapel at 7:20 on mornings when the squad will be leaving or preparing for their seven meets.

The Penny-A-Day count is up to about $365.00 now.... Final count and disbursements will be published. Meantime stray boxes which were missed on collection night may be turned in at Dillon, Howard or Cavanaugh.....One of the Southern boys refers to boxes containing one cent, not as Penny-A-Day Boxes, but Cent-A-Lent Boxes. "As you mete it out, it shall be measured to you."

(Saturday night TWO-TIME TOMMY was left breaking girls' hearts.) Take Sad South Bend Sue.....She's got a future to think of--probably right in this neighborhood.
You drop around for an education and think a practical course in love-making is a part of the liberal arts. You think Sue's a nice girl. You like her mother's home-cooking. You've found her Dad is pretty regular about a loan of the family car. A swell set-up..... Soft, inexpensive for you.....But you ought to know, Two-Time Tommy, that it's costing Sue plenty, perhaps her "chances" for life.
Perhaps just on account of you, Sue will be on the shelf in a couple of years.
You're taking up her valuable time; you don't intend to keep company; you keep her guessing; you keep Nick Niles and Louis LaPorte, Georgie Goshen and Marty Mishawak out of her life..... You're pretty selfish stringing a good girl along. You'll clear out of South Bend.
But Sad Sue will be stuck. (More later)
