MASS & HOLY COMMUNION, WITHOUT STUDY & HONESTY, WILL NOT HELP. WITH THEM, THEY WILL SET?

And it won't do anybody any harm to read "For Cheaters Only" reprinted in a campus supplement tonight from Saturday Letter of Kent State University....Look at the bulletin board in your hall.

Raymond Clapper, Washington columnist, says: METHODIST BRICKBAT HURLED AT ROOSEVELT AT UNFORTUNATE TIME, and continues: "The suspicious Methodists are fighting a bogeyman of their own imagination, the same one that they fought when Al Smith ran for president in 1928 and was suspected by some of them plotting to bring the pope over to run the country. They have allowed that ancient fear to lead them now, as if moved by a kind of kid-glove bigotry, into sabotaging a hopeful gesture in a desperate world.....When the present Pope, as Cardinal Pacelli, visited the United States nearly two years ago..... Mr. Roosevelt recognized.....a statesman in Christ, a man who saw clearly that there were closing down over Europe the most despicable enemies of all that is fine in mankind. It is no small matter of sect. It is not even a question of religion. It is a matter of the spirit, as when the light was extinguished in Finland and Norway.....Oh, sure, this war involves trade and raw materials and living space and many other practical matters. But it also involves the destruction in Europe of the right of men to worship, to live, insofar as their capacities enable them to, within their inner sanctuaries.....Whatever one may say about the tribute which the church exacts from the poor millions of its faith, in this moment the Vatican symbolizes the sanctuary of the spirit in Europe, the only sanctuary left in Europe. The Pope is the living symbol of what surviving spiritual remnants remain, he and his tiny island in this ocean of hate and killing.....Why should not the President of the United States send a personal representative, a Quaker and a gentleman, who has devoted his past few years to the refugee problem, to the Vatican as a gesture for whatever encouragement it might give? Can anyone, unless his outlook is darkly warped by the narrow hates of sect, really believe that such a move is more than a simple gesture of protest against the intolerant brute force which is crushing the spirit of man in Europe?

(Mr. Clapper continues) On a Sabbath long ago, so it is recorded in these very words, Jesus entered into the synagog and there was a man whose right hand was withered. And the scribes and pharisees watched Him, whether He would heal on the Sabbath day, that they might find an accusation against Him. But He knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Rise up and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth. Then Jesus said unto them, I will ask you one thing: Is it lawful on the Sabbath days to do good or to do evil? To save life, or to destroy it?" --- Thanks to Mr. Clapper and The Memphis Press-Scimitar for this common sense and straight-thinking.

You young men can do so much good combatting misinformation simply by telling your non-Catholic neighbor the truth. Has this never occurred to you as an obligation? .....Did He not say: Go, teach? Did He not say: Do good to them that hate you? Have you not learned in philosophy that good is diffusive of itself? --- Where is your love of truth, your zeal for the salvation of your friends? --- Can you not assure your Protestant pal that infallibility doesn't mean you must believe in red-white-and-blue hot-dogs on Rome's say-so? --- The Bulletin's imaginary 1940 MEDAL FOR LOVING NEIGHBOR AND SPREADING TRUTH goes to Mr. Karl Rogers, founder of the Catholic Information Society of Narberth, Pennsylvania.....(More tomorrow).
