
Rockne Premiere.

There are a few who fall hard and willingly for rumors, especially when the University is put in a bad light.

Yes, the Bulletin understands this matter of rumors, and advises you to bite on them -- never. You get all upset by them, at the least. Then again, not just the school or some priest, but you may suffer. Remember last spring at movie time? some extras believed the rumor that the University was going to take your pay as extras -- after you worked hard for it, sitting in church -- and give it to charity. Some of you bit hard. A little freshman, however, immune to rumors, called a few of you on your "I know it's true", and bought your $5.00 pay-tickets for prices ranging from $1.50 to $3.00. He collected $5.00 on each ticket, too.

Don't Bite on Rumors...

...at Notre Dame; not even the rumor that students are being neglected -- that they must take second place, if any's left -- at the Rockne Premiere. There's no second place for students at any University affair. We'll have our own Premiere right here on the campus. There is also one in town with many sidelights, including a dinner here on the campus. But don't confuse the two Premieres. When you hear that the tickets are all gone, just look bored and say, "Don't worry. The University is taking care of us."

For other details, as the news announcer says, see your local newspaper, The Scholastic. In regard to other rumors about next week-end, see tomorrow's Bulletin.

October Adoration -- Again.

Thanks to the ten campus students who volunteered to canvass their halls. More of the three thousand students intended to volunteer, no doubt, but just "forgot".

Thanks, especially, to the off-campus students of the Catholic Action group (The Jocists) who didn't forget to volunteer or to canvass the off-campus students to fill the inconvenient noon-meal periods. Here's the schedule and a few more comments on Adoration from the 1940 Students' Religious Survey:

Adoration	{	Time: 7:30 A. M. to 5:00 P. M. (Except Sat., then to 10:30 A.M.)
of the		Place: The Lady Chapel, rear of Sacred Heart Church.
Blessed Sacrament		How: Half-hour periods; kneel or sit, and talk with Christ.

"I know what's going on now, and I 'feel' His presence."

"I feel closer and freer to speak to our Lord in man-to-man fashion."

"Definitely, I can talk to Him more like to a father or a brother."

"I didn't 'catch on' till this year, and I regret the past two years now."

"One day I experienced a true love for Christ. It was and is the greatest thing that ever happened to me."

Thanks -- to our subscribers on the mailing list, who have sent in their annual $1.50 toward the Bulletin mailing expense. More will probably be forthcoming. It all helps to forestall the day when the ballooning mailing expense will necessitate a re-arrangement of our policy with definite and higher rates.
