

-----
Help Wanted.

Monday is the week day for special honor to the Holy Ghost. Two gifts of the Holy Ghost are particularly needed by about 400 upper-classmen who haven't been to the Sacraments since September:

Fear of the Lord, which fills us with a hatred of sin.

Fortitude, which strengthens us to do the will of God.

You who have love of God and neighbor in your heart will receive Communion Monday, and ask the Holy Ghost for those two gifts for any friend who has:

1. A fear of confession.
2. A wishbone for a backbone.
3. A "squirrel" mentality.
4. Sophomoritis.

"He who causeth a sinner to be converted from the error of his way shall save his soul from death and shall cover a multitude of sins," James, v.

College Drinking.

Religion Goes to College is an attractive and informative Religious Survey edited by Father Schott of the Diocese of Harrisburg. The Survey consists of answers asked of Catholic students attending several non-Catholic universities in the East.

"Do you think college students, as a group, drink to excess?" was one of the questions. Sixty-four per cent answered "No". Thirty-six per cent said "Yes!", with the following remarks which have a familiar ring:

1. "The younger college set does, the older set does not."
2. "Those who 'attend' college do, the 'students' do not!"
3. "When they leave home, they seem to act as if they were let out of their cages, and the sky is the limit. Incidentally, if they could see themselves from another's vantage point! They are puerile, pseudo-sophisticates, and make a horrible picture."

Heads Up!

After looking at the bowed heads in Church, we'll repeat again: Christ and the Church wants you to look up at Him when He is raised for your adoration at the Elevation in the Mass, and also at Benediction.

The Church grants you an indulgence of seven years for looking up at Him, saying at the same time, "My Lord and my God." That's how confident the Church is that your Saviour is present in the Eucharist!

If that Sacred Host were not the very Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ -- the God-Man -- then adoring that white host would be crass idolatry, one of the greatest sins against God.

Look up, therefore, at the Elevation and at Benediction. Say with a heart full of love and adoration, "My Lord and My God".

PRAYERS: The 8:30 Mass Sunday is being offered for the repose of the soul of Fred Aselage, Dec: Friend of Charles Pickhardt (Cav). Ill: (Appendectomy) Bernard Stechschulte (Car.).