

FRESHMEN, ATTENTION.

No longer does the stalwart figure of Father Grimm fill the office of the Prefect of Religion at Cavanaugh. He has been made Superior of Holy Cross Seminary across the lake. He asks the prayers of all of you, from freshmen to seniors, that God will bless his efforts in his new work.

You will find occupying his place in the Cavanaugh Prefect of Religion office, Father Paul Beichner, smaller in size but as big in heart and as anxious to help you as was Father Grimm. You don't need a special introduction to him. He wants to meet you all, so drop in.

The hours and facilities will be the same. Communion will be distributed at the 7:25 Mass and until 9:15 A.M. Then in the evening the office will be open from 7:30 until 9:45 for confessions (ring the buz Our Glory and Our Joy you over your worries. If you want a medal to replace the one that you gave to the kid brother, drop in.

Our Glory and Our Joy.

Last Sunday was the Feast of the Holy Name of Jesus. Though the feast is past, the hymn from First Vespers is appropriate today and every day to teach us greater reverence for His name, to remind us of His mercy and love for man, especially, sinners. The following translation is taken from "The Hymns of the Breviary."

Jesu, the very thought of Thee
With sweetness fills my breast;
But sweeter far Thy face to see,
And in Thy presence rest.

Nor voice can sing, nor heart can frame,
Nor can the memory find,
A sweeter sound than Thy blest Name,
O Saviour of mankind!

O Hope of every contrite heart,
O Joy of all the meek,
To those who fall, how kind Thou art,
How good to those who seek!

But what to those who find? Ah! this
Nor tongue nor pen can show:
The love of Jesus, what it is
None but His loved ones know.

Jesu, our only joy be Thou
As Thou our prize wilt be;
Jesu, be Thou our glory now,
And through eternity.

Matt Millenbach Needs Prayers.

Matt Millenbach of Alumni Hall was in an accident in his home town, Detroit, last Saturday evening. Fractured skull, the doctors say, which probably won't prove fatal but there is danger of complications.

Prayers are in order, especially from his Alumni hallmates for his complete and speedy recovery.

PRAYERS: (deceased) aunt of Ray Williams (Al.); mother of Joe Brien '37; brother of Bill Hannan '40; friends of R. Streb '32; Mrs. Arleen Ford. Four special intentions.
