

"Greater love than this
No man hath,
That a man lay down his life
For his friends."

FIRST FRIDAY
TOMORROW.

Sacred Heart of Jesus,
The world and its sins,
My sins,
Crucified you then --

--And crucify you anew today
After you laid down your life
For me, your friend.

I'm sorry for my sins,
for my treasons
to your love.

Tomorrow at Mass
and at Adoration,
I'll humbly offer
a man's reparation
to that great Heart of yours.

And from tomorrow, things are going to be different. I'll be more thoughtful.
I'll be faithful this time, faithful unto death, as were you.

(Wood drawing by Barberis for The Sign)