

University of Notre Dame
Special Alumni Bulletin
May 30, 1941

Alumni Welcome.

It's peace, the peace of old that you'll find here again on Our Lady's campus.

In a world gone mad with hate, confusion, pessimism and sin you can get your bearings here.

You can again recapture that security and peace that was yours while a member of Our Lady's family.

It's All For You.

A fine program has been prepared by The University and the Alumni Office. It is a program that will refresh the spirit and the body. At registration in the Alumni Office you received a list of all the various events; the discussions on economics and politics, led by experts, followed by an open forum for your questions.

Then there's the golf tournament, the softball games, concerts, smokers and banquets.

Equally important are those unscheduled events always so important at Notre Dame; visits to the Grotto, the walks around the lake, a few moments in the peaceful seclusion of the Sacred Heart Church, or the Basement Chapel.

There's swimming at the Rockne pool and the ol' swimming hole on St. Joe Lake. You might even meet there, as of old, Bishop O'Hara who is expected to make at least a fleeting visit to the campus at Commencement time.

The Religious Side of It.

So that you won't worry about fast and abstinence, on Friday or Saturday either (the latter being the Vigil of Pentecost) we pass this along to you. Friday, a holiday, has been exempted from the usual Friday abstinence. The Bishop of Ft. Wayne has also extended to all of you, when eating on the campus, the student privilege of exemption from the vigil fast and abstinence.

And what would a Religious Bulletin be without a schedule of the services? Here they are:

MASSES FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, Basement 6:00 & 6:30; Dillon Chapel, 7:20.

Memorial Day Mass, Memorial Door, 9:00 A.M.

CONFESSIONS, Dillon Chapel; 7:30 A.M. to Noon; 6:30 to 9:00 P.M.

HOLY COMMUNION WILL BE DISTRIBUTED UNTIL NOON IN DILLON CHAPEL FRIDAY
AND SATURDAY.

SUNDAY MASSES IN SACRED HEART CHURCH: All Low Masses.

5:00 and 6:00 (Basement Chapel): 7:00, 8:00, 9:00, 10:00, & 11:00 (upstairs)

Notre Dame one time meant peace, security and happiness to you. Let it mean that again these next few days. And, as in days of old, you'll get the greatest renewal of spirit at the Communion rail and at the Grotto -- you did then; it is still true.

The Prefect or one of his associates will be on hand at Dillon all morning and again in the evening to welcome you and to serve you.
