Put on Your Manners.

There'll be guests on the campus today and tomorrow and your Mother on the Dome hopes you'll show the greatest courtesy to these visitors to her home and your home.

She's Accustomed to Entertaining

It's nothing new for her to entertain on the First Sunday of October. Away back in 1875 large crowds used to come visiting her on Rosary Sunday - and not for football but to have a procession in her honor. They came clear from Mishawaka, which isn't far but they came on foot which was unusual, and they recited the Rosary as they walked which was more unusual, of course. That was the first pilgrimage to Notre Dame: 500 Mishawakans who walked and prayed all the way out and back. That wasn't the last pilgrimage, but in later years with plenty of horses and later horse-powers the pilgrimage became too easy and therefore stopped.

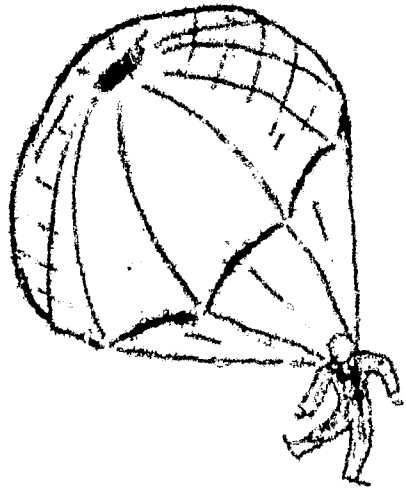

But, of course the priests and brothers - and nuns too - still walk so they have kept the Faith and the pilgrimage - in miniature - these long years.

You'll hear about it tomorrow from, we hope, one of the older Holy Cross priests who used to see thousands come to pay homage to the Queen of the Holy Rosary on her Sunday. The 8:30 Mass will be a Solemn High Mass.

For Parachuters

A news item recently stated that condensed meals, their weight figured in ounces and including the contents of the German "courage tablets", may become the new field ration of the United States' parachute units.

- and we add that the courage and love of Christ in the Eucharist will be given as usual until 9 in Cavanaugh and Howard, until noon in Dillon, to those parachuters.

- (1) Who live high up in the Main Building, close to Our Lady on the Dome, whenever they sleep late.
- (2) Who among sophomores, juniors and seniors are still "up in the air" and have forgotten that a priest every week-day waits with Christ for their convenience - and courage.

The Brooklyn Fans -

- Advise that they resent any connection between their beloved Dodgers and our Mission dodgers. The former, they say, "play the game".

Sunday Tips.

To avoid the Sunday blues, avoid "blue" stories, oral or written. Get up, get outside, get to the Memorial, get some study, get to Mass on time.
