The Army Mule Has a Kick

It will be a tough game. Win or lose, the boys will contribute to Our Lady's glory, but any student will ruin and cancel that if he uses the week-end as an opportunity for sin or bad example. Like the Army Cadets, you are on parade.

Ungentlemanly conduct plus boasting of your Alma Mater puts dirty, ugly spots on the Dome. Reflect Our Lady's glory where ever you are this week-end.

Good Books Give You a Lift

For you who are sick of the sappy, modern writers, whether in books or magazines, here are some books that your fellow students have found not only interesting but lasting in effect.

They give you a "hangover", an idea, or inspiration that lasts. They don't try to get by just on sex either, the cheapest form of appeal that lets you down.

Students highly recommend these which can be found in the Prefect of Religion libraries - 117 Dillon, 107 Howard, 107 Cavanaugh.

- Freedom In The Modern World - Maritain.....The Pageant of Life - Dudley
- Beauty Looks After Herself - Gill.....Now I See - Lunn
- Life of Jesus - Mauriac.....The Sacrifice - Bussard
- The Long Road Home - Moody.....The Map of Life - Sheed
- The Masterful Monk - Dudley.....Saints for Sinners - Goodier
- A Saint In The Slave Trade - Lunn.....The Church And The Catholic - Guardini
- College Men, Their Making And Unmaking - Preface

Help!

You'd be doing a favor too, to write anonymously on back of this or another slip your reactions to or benefits from October Adoration. Slip it in the Novena Box.

Bring Back the Dead.

Write names of deceased relatives and friends below and enter them in Novena Box in each hall. THE NOVENA BEGINS MONDAY, ALL SOULS DAY.

Hand in names, and get down on those prayer-bones to shoulder a few helpless souls in-to Heaven.

Plenary indulgence is granted from Sunday noon to Monday night for each visit to Church or hall chapel and recitation of 6 Paters, Aves and Glorias for Pope's intention.
