
First Friday.

Tomorrow, as on every First Friday, Christ tries to draw two types of souls to Himself.

1. Sinners.

A desire to get back to confession will spring up within them. Where there was fear, there will be hope founded on Christ's words: "Sinners shall find in my heart an infinite ocean of mercy". The sinner will find real happiness only when he returns to the friendship of the Lord.

2. Those Discouraged.

"Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and you will find rest for your soul." Christ always gives courage and consolation to those who come to Him.

**

The loving and merciful Heart of Christ calls all students to Him tomorrow. You will find Him at Mass, in Holy Communion, and at Adoration.

Confessions - Mass.

Tonight confessions will be heard in all halls after night prayer as usual, and in Dillon, Howard, and Cavanaugh until 10:00 p.m. Set your alarm to awaken you in time for a complete Mass during the days of Lent, especially on First Friday. Off-campus students are reminded that there are Masses in Dillon and Cavanaugh at 7:10 and in Howard at 7:20 every morning.

Benefactor Dies.

Remember in your prayers Mae Anson Donoghue who died on the evening of March 2. She was buried at Stevens Point, Wisconsin today. Mae Anson Donoghue is the sister of the late George Anson, benefactor and one time trustee of the University. In 1928, in memory of their father, the Anson family established at Notre Dame the Leonard N. Anson Scholarship.

All Catholic College Students Pray For President of U. S.

Recently the President of the U. S. was promised, through the National Federation of Catholic College Students - of which Notre Dame is a member - a Day of Prayer, on which all Catholic College students would unite in spirit and beg God to assist the Chief Executive in all his duties. Tomorrow, First Friday, has been selected as the National Day of Prayer. Rise for Mass and Holy Communion and offer to the Sacred Heart all your works of the day. Here is your chance to help the Nation and the President.
