To be sure, 'tis a great day for the Irish - today, St. Patrick's Day! The people of the Isle were pagan until Patrick came. He brought to those souls the Faith of Christ. And Patrick did a good job - the land became known as the Land of Saints... Some are wearing their colors today, a green tie, a lapel holding a shamrock. Their names are O'Rourke, Lanihan, Sullivan, O'Toole. And if others are wearing the green today, like Brutz, Bertelli, Juzwik and Ziemba, the Irish won't mind.

They will adopt anyone who loves... St. Patrick and speaks well
