

Confession tonight for
First Friday in. . .

University of Notre Dame
Religious Bulletin
July 2, 1942

. . . church, Dillon, Cav.,
& B-P until 10:00.

(No Adoration) First Friday (Benediction after Supper)

Get down for Mass and Communion tomorrow morning and ask the Sacred Heart's special blessing and protection for your body and soul over the week end. Leave N.D. in the state of grace and return with that precious gift.

Fourth of July.

Hall Mass An hour later than usual
Late Mass 8:30 in Dillon Hall

The Indulgences On Your Crucifix.

The crucifix which the Prefect of Religion will give you for your desk is blessed and has the following indulgences attached: (The Prefects of Religion have special faculties to bless all crucifixes with these indulgences. If you got your rosary from them the attached crucifix contains the indulgences.)

1. The Apostolic Indulgence. (Commonly called the Indulgence for a Happy Death)
This indulgence is gained by any dying person who kisses the crucifix and pronounces on his lips the Holy Name of Jesus having true contrition for his sins. (If the person is not able to pronounce the Holy Name on his lips, it suffices for him to say it in his heart.)

The effect of this indulgence: the instant one dies he gains a plenary indulgence, that is, a removal of all the temporal punishment merited by sin.

2. The Way of the Cross Indulgence (plenary).
If one meditates on the stations in some church or chapel he gains a plenary indulgence (Two plenary indulgences are gained if Holy Communion was received the day the stations were made.)

When one desires to gain the plenary indulgence and yet no chapel or church is available, as in the case of those who are travelling by water, those detained in prison, the sick and those legitimately impeded from making the Way of the Cross in the ordinary manner, the plenary indulgence can be gained with the specially blessed crucifix in the following manner:

- a) By holding the crucifix in the hand (unless manual labor or some other reasonable cause prevents that action, and then it suffices to have the crucifix on the person in any way whatsoever, and
- b) By reciting 20 Our Fathers, Hail Marys, and Glory Be to the Fathers, namely one for each station, 5 in memory of the Wounds of Christ and one for the intentions of the Holy Father.

NOTE: Those who by reason of their sickness cannot without grave inconvenience or difficulty say the 20 Our Fathers, etc. can gain the indulgence by kissing or only looking with love and contrition on the specially blessed crucifix and reciting some short prayer or ejaculation in memory of the sufferings and death of Our Blessed Lord. (Mental recitation of the ejaculation suffices.)

PRAYERS: (Deceased) aunt of Fr. J. C. Burke, C.S.C.; father of Jim Fagan. (Ill) friend of Bob O'Reilly (Al); Emil Telfel, '31; mother of Austin Boyle, '31.
Two special intentions.