WHO IS IT?

- Perhaps it is the student who doesn't believe in making a Novena for Mother's Day
Or maybe the sailor who thinks a week end must begin with liquor and end with women
Or the boob who is running around with a married woman
Or the Catholic who has not made his Easter Duty
Or the Serviceman who spurns the graces and blessings of the Afternoon Mass
Or the ignoramus who thinks he knows more than the Church about mixed marriage
Or the poor wretch who thinks he can cure his habits of sin without the aid of the Sacraments and the advice of a confessor
Or Lucifer's assistant who spices the conversation with his hot stuff
Or the bigshot who thinks a weekly half-hour of Adoration during May is for women and kids
Or the ingrate who is not playing square with his mother's prayers for him nor with his father's money
Or the sinner who will not give up an occasion of sin
If you are wearing the ball and chain, get rid of it!!!

The Remedy

One large dose of humility.

May spent in the company of Our Lady.
