

SERVICEMEN: Ask someone to awaken you for Sunday Mass. It's sinful to take chances. Use alarm or pal.

Sunday Adoration: 6:30 to 7.
Lake weekday Mass: 7:20 A.M.
in Sorin Hall chapel. Again,
what are you doing for Lent??

Why Cover The Statues.

Next Sunday Mother Church tells us: "Start thinking about the Passion of Our Lord." She names the Sunday "Passion Sunday" and urges us to reflect seriously about the sufferings of Christ for fourteen days. Forgetfulness! How well the Church knows this weakness of Her children! So She tries to help us keep our thoughts on the Passion by dressing Our Blessed Lady and the saints in purple. It is Her way of telling us, "The saints are thinking about the sufferings and death of Christ, shouldn't you?" Moreover, by concealing the statues from our sight, the Church hopes to turn our prayers and meditation to the principle devotion of the season - the Passion. Read the story of the Passion in the Sunday Missal, under Palm Sunday, if you don't have a New Testament. Unless you have a hard heart, you should want to read about the death of the one who died for you.

Have You Made Your Easter Duty?

What's holding you back, Sin? It's a terrible thing to be an enemy of God: "He who is not with Me is against Me." You will find Our Lord and His forgiveness in the confessional. Meet Him tonight.

You May Eat Meat On Friday In The Dining Hall.

The following are dispensed from the law of abstinence while on the Notre Dame campus, that is, they may eat meat on all days of the year, including Friday, with the exception of the Vigil of Christmas, Ash Wednesday, Good Friday and the forenoon of Holy Saturday. Note carefully the limitations of the dispensation.

1. All men and women in the Armed Forces of the country. (While on or off campus)
2. All civilian students when on campus and eating in the university dining halls or Student Infirmary.
3. All prefects and employees who eat in the dining halls proper or elsewhere in the Dining Hall (not the cafeteria) or in the Student Infirmary.
4. All dining hall and Infirmary employees during working hours when eating in the Dining Hall or Student Infirmary.

All who eat in the Notre Dame cafeteria (other than servicemen and servicewomen) are to abide by all the laws of abstinence now in effect; they are not dispensed.

Difficulties in the procurement of food and in the preparation of two different menus are at the basis of this dispensation. No one is dispensed from self-denial. Pray more frequently. Make better efforts to uproot bad habits. Live a Catholic life shining with good example.
