For The Team.

There were a number of injuries received in the Navy game, more than the usual bumps and bruises. One man will be out for the season because of a shoulder injury. Don't let the team down this coming Saturday. Attend Mass and receive Holy Communion that no one will be injured in the Army game. The Saturday Mass during the football season is traditionally for the team. The players will appreciate your prayerful support for this game. Assist at Mass in your own hall chapel.

New Students and Confession.

When you were back home, you looked upon Saturday as confession day. At Notre Dame Saturday is the least convenient time for you to go to confession because of the evening movie on the campus and other distractions. At Notre Dame every day is confession day.

There is a confessor in your hall confessional during the morning Mass and again immediately after night prayer. In Sorin hall chapel there is a confessor on duty all morning and all evening. In Cavanaugh hall chapel a priest will be on duty from 7:30 until 10:00 P.M. In Sorin and Cavanaugh halls simply press the buzzer at the chapel door to call the priest on duty.

You can receive Holy Communion outside of Mass in Sorin hall chapel all morning and in Cavanaugh chapel from 7:30 to 9:00 A.M. Drop into one of these halls before you eat breakfast in the caf or the Huddle.

It will be impossible for one priest to hear more than ten or fifteen confessions Saturday morning during the hall Mass. So it is wise for you to walk over to Sorin or Cavanaugh chapels tonight.

A Note For Freshmen.

The seating capacity of the campus church is not large enough to hold the entire student body at one time. Therefore distribution of the students at Sunday Mass becomes a necessity. All the students living in Breen-Phillips, Zahm, Cavanaugh and St. Edward's halls are not to attend the 10:10 Mass. They are to attend either the 6:00, 7:00 or 9:00 o'clock Masses. Students in the other halls, even they are freshmen, may attend any campus Mass they choose.

Remember the Poor Souls.

You should make extra efforts during this month of November to help the Poor Souls. Daily Mass and Communion will hasten many souls to heaven. Charity for your friends and relatives will prompt you to make sacrifices for departed souls. The Prefect of Religion will offer a Tridium of Masses for your intentions next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. List below the names of the deceased person you wish included in these Masses. Tear off the names and leave the slip in the Tridium envelope attached to your bulletin board in the hall.

Study Schedules and calendars are available in the Office of the Prefect of Religion, 141 Sorin (Father Craddock) or 107 Cavanaugh (Father Simonitch)
