Stenographer's Lament.

Dear Lord, I just don't have the time
to say an aspiration;
My typing, shorthand, and the rest
crowds out all meditation.
I'd like to say a prayer or two
While working through the day,
But "Yours received" and "We regret"
Are always in the way.
I know that you will understand
And bless a girl who tries;
So, if it's all the same to You,
Dear Lord, we'll compromise.
Each time I type a manuscript,
I'm praying on the keys;
The M's are all "Hail Mary's"
and the G's are "Glory Be's".
And when I take a memo, Lord,
I'll pray to You again;
Each word will mean "Laudate," (Eileen Egan, in Each period, "Amen." Tertiary Record)

This bit of consolation for the main office clerical force is also a reminder for you to sanctify your preparation for the approaching examination. The state of grace is essential. Without it your work is wasted. With it your efforts at study give God glory and bring a store of merit and blessings to you. Check up on the state of your soul.
