Hallowe'en.

There's a night in October, a fun-making night
When costumes are donned to the children's delight,
And everything's jolly with fun and with play,
"Have fun" is the watchword, "In whatever you may."
Then the witches and goblins run 'round on the loose,
And young frolickers traverse the streets by the twos.
Their voices ring loudly, "Be joyful," they mean;
"Do come out and be happy on this Hallowe'en."
There's not a thought given to such matters grave
As the right or the wrong way for them to behave.
They don't understand that the real Hallowe'en
Was a day very different from what we have seen.
For a long time ago, say in one eighty-two,
'Twas an eve named for prayer, and all the night through
The churches were crowded with those who would pray.
To the dear saints above, that they would relay
Their petitions of pardon for all the world's sin
And graces for their life's battle to win.
'Twould be well to revert to the custom of old and send to "All Saints" our prayers made of gold.

"Will You Help Me?"

Generous students will not forget their deceased parents, relatives and friends during November. Begin this month of prayer by assisting at three Masses on Saturday, All Souls Day. You can do this conveniently in your hall chapel, because every priest has the privilege of offering three Masses on November 2.

You can gain a PLENARY INDULGENCE for a Poor Soul every time you visit the church or any hall chapel and say the Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory Be To The Father six times, for the intention of the Pope. These indulgences can be gained between Friday noon (Nov. 1) and Saturday midnight (Nov. 2) Plan to spend nearly an hour gaining these indulgences, not at one time, but at free periods during the day.

By stepping outside the church or chapel you conclude your visit. You may return immediately and begin another visit.

PRAYERS: (deceased) father of Brother Garnier, CSC and Paul Morin. (Ill) Dr. L'Episcopo, friend of Jim Greene (Ly). Four Special Int.
