Confessions: Night Prayer,
Basement chapel, 6:15 to 7:30 P.M. Dillon and Cav.
from 7:30 to 10:00 P.M.

Kick sin out of your life -- that's the first step in preparing for Christmas. No one in his right mind can find happiness in sin. If there is serious sin in your life, and a little voice keeps telling you to wait until Christmas Eve before going to confession, you can be sure it's the devil goofing you.

You are going home in a few days to meet your Infant Saviour, your mother and your girl. Make yourself worthy of all three by an honest preparation for the Birth of Christ.

The following definite program is possible for every student: Daily Mass, Communion, rosary, visit to the Grotto and a short period of adoration in the church. In doing this for your mother and father you will have prepared yourself for Christmas.

A number of students have not started this Novena for their parents. Are you one of them?

PRAYERS: (deceased) uncle of Bill Leonard (D11). (I11) Charles Marshall (OC), hospital, fractured leg. Two Special Intentions. One Thanksgiving.
