

Watch Your Words.

Keep watch on your words, my darlings,
For words are wonderful things:
They are sweet like the bees' fresh honey,
Like the bees, they have terrible stings;
They can bless like the warm, glad sunshine
And brighten a lonely life;
They can cut in time of anger,
Like an open two-edged knife.

Let them pass through your lips unchallenged
If their errand be true and kind,
If they come to support the weary,
To comfort and help the blind.
If a bitter, revengeful spirit
Prompt the words, let them be unsaid;
They may crash through a brain like lightning,
Or may fall on a heart like lead.

Keep them back, if they're cold and cruel,
Under bar and lock and seal;
The wound they make, my darlings,
Are always slow to heal.
May peace guard your lips, and ever
From the time of your earthly youth,
May the words that you daily utter
Be the words of beautiful truth. (Anon)
