A Request.

"Last Monday we lost our younger brother Gene from the effects of uremic poisoning. He was a good boy who carried his severe cross bravely during these last two years, and as the priest at his funeral said, "He lived close to the heart of Christ." He was very much interested in Notre Dame, and one of his last remarks was how the team made out against Tulane. I would appreciate very much your asking the students to remember him in your prayers."

WEEKEND INFORMATION.

Friday is First Friday. so start the day by assisting at Mass and receiving Holy Communion. Remember to offer your Communion in reparation for sin. This is the intention Our Blessed Lord wants us have. He revealed his desire to St. Margareta Mary. Thursday night should see you at the confessional, at night prayer in your hall, in the Basement chapel between 6:30 and 7:30, or in Dillon or Cavanaugh after 7:30 P.M.

With Saturday bringing the football season to a close, you should be present for Mass and Communion in your hall chapel for the team. We want no one on the squad to return to the campus with a break or a bruise. Support the team by your prayer.

Monday is a Holy Day of obligation, the feast of the Immaculate Conception of the Mother of God. Wherever you are Monday, you must assist at Mass. The schedule of Masses for the campus on Monday will be the same as the Sunday schedule.

Tuesday is the first day of the Christmas Novena for Parents. There will be Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament in the Lay Chapel of the church every day of this Novena. Your love for your parents will prompt you to make at least one half-hour period of prayer for their welfare. An attractive Novena Card is being prepared for your parents. Cards will be left at your door as soon as they come off the press. Mass, Holy Communion, the rosary and visits to the Grotto are also a part of this Novena.

That $35,000.

St. Polycarp once said, "If you are kind to others so shall God be kind to you." The dollar offering you will be asked to give tonight to help needy students in foreign countries may require you to give up a few smokes or a movie. This kindness on your part will bring some particular blessing to you in the future. God will outdo you in generosity, if you will give Him a chance. So give that dollar and rest content that you will be blessed later.

PRAYERS : (Ill) mother of Mike Moore (Gen. Acct. Officer); Elizabeth Lowell, aunt of Mile McGuirl (Wal); cousin and friend of Pat Kenny (Wal). One Thanksgiving. Two Special Intentions.
