

God is not Mocked

When the statue of Our Lady of Fatima was in Louvain, Belgium, the whole city turned out to pay homage to the Mother of God, all but a group of students.

These young men considered the devotion to Our Lady as so much nonsense. So they planned a burlesque of the whole celebration. They hired a car, dressed one of their number as the Blessed Virgin, while the others masqueraded as priests and peasants.

The people were horrified when they saw the car move up the city streets. The show did not last long. The car met with an accident, and every one of the students was killed.

God never stops urging sinners to return to confession. Most times he talks to them in a whisper. Sometimes He sends tragedy to wake men up. Are you asleep in sin?

Jack Joyce Recovering

"Jack asked me to acknowledge your telegram and the Bulletin request for prayers. I feel sure that it was only the many petitions to Heaven in his behalf that pulled him through. For two weeks we had scant hope for him. Incidentally his first real turn for the better came last Saturday, the day of the Purdue game. I read to him your message about the team making a touchdown for him, and when I saw that he was a little improved on Saturday morning I took a radio down to him so he could listen to the game.

"That night I went back to see him. He was all pepped up. He needed something to lift up his spirits. Thus the game was a shot in the arm. At present Jack is almost entirely paralyzed save for some use of his hands. However, we hope that much, if not all, of this paralysis will clear up with treatments. We appreciate your prayers very much and hope that you will continue praying as Jack still has a long, tough road to recovery."

Special Indulgence Thursday

The campus church is privileged on the feast of the Most Holy Rosary, October 7. Those who visit the Church and say the Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory, Be to the Father six times, for the Pope's intentions, gain a plenary indulgence. This indulgence may be applied to one's own debt of temporal punishment for sin, or it may be given to some soul in Purgatory. You will gain a plenary indulgence every time you visit the Church (and say the prayers just mentioned) between Wednesday noon and Thursday night. Recent confession and Communion is another condition. This is a chance for you to hurry many souls to Heaven. Charity for relatives and friends should urge you to spend part of an hour gaining these indulgences.

PRAYERS: (deceased) grandfather of Tino Sierra (Wal). (Ill) mother of Father Holderith, CSC, critical. Four Special Intentions.
