

Litany Of Our Weak Willies

Those playboys who are squandering their time, talents, and parents' money . . .

Pound sense into them, O Lord.

Those loafers who never study, never go to the Sacraments, and thereby deprive some worthy young man of the opportunity of obtaining a Catholic education at Notre Dame . . .

Deliver us from them, O Lord.

Those slow starters who never arrive at Sunday Mass on time . . .

Teach them punctuality, O Lord.

Those foul-mouthed students who give bad example by their low talk on busses and elsewhere . . .

Convert them by fire and brimstone, if necessary, O Lord.

Those fearful students who have not been to confession since the start of the semester . . .

Give them courage, O Lord.

Those complaining Catholics who always have a grudge against the Church and Her laws, but who will never sit down with a priest for an intelligent discussion of their problem . . .

Keep them from kidding themselves, O Lord.

Those cold-hearted students who have done nothing to help the Poor Souls during November . . .

Warm up their hearts, O Lord.

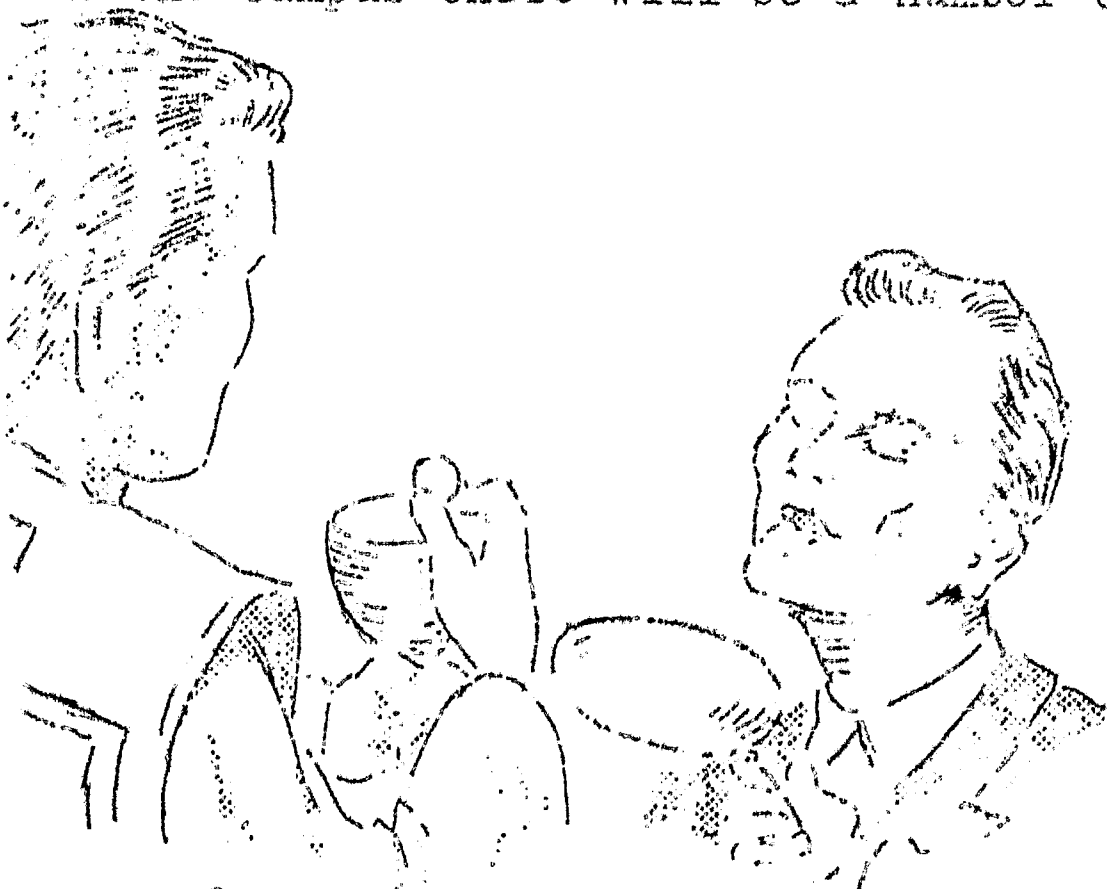

Thanksgiving Day

It won't make sense if you don't express your gratitude to God for His blessings next Thursday. You will be given a free day to make it easy for you to give some extra time to show your appreciation by prayer. The perfect act of Thanksgiving is the Sacrifice of the Mass. In your plans for Thursday make some provision for Mass. On the campus there will be a number of Masses at convenient hours.

Mexican Mission

The campus offerings for Father Schmidt and his needy Mexicans has reached the hundred dollar mark. And the donations are still coming in. Leave your gifts with the Prefect of Religion, 117 Dillon Hall, or mail them in.

PRAYERS: (deceased) mother of Bob Debruler (21); mother of Harold, Lester and Milton Foley, all ND alumni. Seven Special Intentions. One Thanksgiving.
