Maurice Francis Egan Says
(Famous N.D. prof and U.S. diplomat)

"Looking back over my 72 years, I should like to say for the benefit of the young that when one is old, one regrets not so much the sins one has committed so much as the good deeds one might have performed.

"As a Christian, I trust that I can leave my sins to Christ, who is more merciful than man; but I can never forgive myself for not having been keener to discover means of helping others."

Our Family Communion

If one member of a family honors Mary, she will send favors to that family in return for the devotion of a single member. If all the family joins in some devotion to God's Mother, certainly Mary will send her choicest blessings to that family group.

Once every year the Notre Dame family pays honor to Mary and to her Son by receiving Holy Communion with fellow alumni in the district in which they are living. This coming Sunday has been chosen as Notre Dame Communion Sunday.

You are a member of the Notre Dame family. You should need little encouragement to bring you to the Communion rail Sunday to receive Holy Communion in honor of Our Blessed Lady. If you add your Mass Communion to the thousands of others attended by alumni, further blessings will come to you and Notre Dame graduates.

Don't wait until Sunday to go confession. Slip into the box tonight. In case you miss confession at night prayer time, drop into Dillon or Cavanaugh Chapels anytime after 7:30 p.m. Or stop at the Basement Chapel of the Church at 6:30, after your visit to the Grotto.

Please Cooperate With Ushers

A rush of last minute traffic is causing congestion at the back of the church at the 10:10 and 11:10 o'clock Sunday Masses. Ushers have been unable to cope with the situation because some students will not take directions. The ushers have orders to keep the back of the church clear. Please cooperate with them. This congestion never takes place until after Mass has started. The best cooperation you can give is by arriving in plenty of time for Mass.
