Save Wednesday Night

The church bells will ring Wednesday night. They will be calling you to the Lenten sermon and Benediction. The services will start at 7 o'clock.

The sermon will be given by Father William Robinson, CSC, assistant religious superior at Notre Dame, and for many years professor of dogmatic theology at the Holy Cross seminary in Washington.

Our bishop has stated emphatically that a substitute must be made for the Lenten fast and abstinence, and he mentions as a substitute attendance at the Lenten devotions.

If you read the Sunday Visitor on the rack last Sunday, you noticed that the bishop says that attending one or other Lenten devotion is not sufficient. Attend all of them.

"Apology"

Every year the Department of Philosophy arranges a celebration to honor St. Thomas Aquinas, patron of philosophers and students, on March 7, his feastday. The celebration was delayed this year until March 10, Thursday, when there will be a presentation in the Veterans' Recreation Hall, starting at 7:00 P.M. The "Apology of St. Thomas" will be presented by students in philosophy.

The performance will be supported by the Moreau Seminary Choir and the Notre Dame Band. The Audio-Visual department will also participate. Students and professors are invited.

Buy Those Bengal Tickets Now.

For eighteen years the gloves have been flying at Notre Dame. Bengal is a section of India, now Pakistan, where some forty Holy Cross priests and brothers and sisters are doing missionary work. The Bengal Bouts were promoted for the student enjoyment and for the financial support of the Bengal Missions.

Tickets for the Bouts are now on sale in the basement of the Dining Hall, at the Huddle (afternoons), in the Knights of Columbus office in Walsh Hall basement, and in the N.D. Ticket Office all day. The Dining Hall office will be open during meal times.

The Bouts will be held March 28, 29, and 30; semi-finals on March 31 and finals on April 2.

New Radio Program.

Father John Cavanaugh, President of Notre Dame, will lead you in the Rosary every night, except Saturday, over Station WND (630). The broadcast will start at 10:15. The recitation of the Rosary will be part of the new program, The Family Bulletin. The opening broadcast will be Wednesday.
