Loosen-Up For Bengal.

A great deal of hard work goes into the preparation for the Bengal Bouts. The men who so generously sacrifice their time for it should know that it is appreciated. The local Knights of Columbus, promoters and sponsors of this annual foray, promise that this year's bouts will be among the best. Even though Gus Cifelli is studying for his comprehensive in philosophy and worrying about the three-hour answer to WHAT IS KNOWLEDGE?, he'd like to know the three-ring answer: AT WHAT WEIGHT WILL ZIP ROEMER BE FIGHTING?

The whole show will be a splendid exemplification of Notre Dame spirit, and as such will hearten the Holy Cross missionaries--many of them Notre Dame men--who have given their lives spreading the Gospel in far-off Bengal, India....If you do not go to the fights, you'll miss a night of classy fisticuffs. But do not miss the chance to loosen-up for Bengal--buy a ticket anyhow.

Monsieur Vincent.

Showing this coming Saturday in Washington Hall will be the real life story of St. Vincent de Paul, the special patron of all charitable associations. Critics have acclaimed this movie as one of the best foreign films ever shown in this country. It will make you think. Don't miss it. Sophomores please note.

1,998 Alumni Can't Be Wrong.

WHAT ADVICE WOULD YOU GIVE A RECENT GRADUATE OF NOTRE DAME CONTEMPLATING MARRIAGE? These alumni answered this question in the most recent (1948) Alumni Survey. Here are a few typical replies:

"Don't rush into marriage--be absolutely certain you have the right girl, for a case of bad judgment can ruin your whole life."

"Find the Catholic girl you're satisfied you can live with and that you are pretty sure can live with you, and marry her as soon as possible. Don't let yourself fall in love with a non-Catholic."

(Non-Catholic) "Since I am a psychiatrist I do marriage counselling. Best advice: Have similar backgrounds, educationally, socially, and an appreciation of religion; have similar goals in life and therefore similar interests...."

"Marry in your own social class if possible and marry for love not glamor, and especially marry an unaffected, courageous, Catholic girl who is willing to make sacrifices to help you succeed in your chosen life's work."

"Attend a pre-Cana Conference if available....Resolve to practice family prayer right from the beginning....Participate actively in parish life; help to develop the Christian community spirit which is so largely missing today."

"Do not pick your wife because she is a good dancer. Marriage means living together, not dancing together. Have some financial security before marriage."

(Non-Catholic) "Though not a Catholic, I agree with you that mixed marriages are not good. I advise any non-Catholic to join and accept Catholicism before marriage with a Catholic."
