"Lord, Teach Us How To Pray."

Our Lord died. The Our Father is Christ's first lesson on how to pray. "Our Father Who art in heaven . . . Thy kingdom come . . . Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven . . . "

Fulfilling God's will on earth is our vocation. This plea of the Pater Noster is the prayer of each one of us to know what God's will is. What does God want me to be? . . . What does God want me to do? . . . "If you ask me anything in my name, I will do it," promises Our Lord.

Commerce On The Ball.

"Dear Father Grimm: I have a suggestion to make concerning the Holy Hour which is held every thursday afternoon from 4:30 to 5:30. As I understand it, this Holy Hour in the Main Church before the Blessed Sacrament enthroned is held for the purpose of asking Our Lord to grant more vocations to the religious life and to help us in our own vocations, whatever they might be."

"I think many of us students fail to realize that being real students is our vocation at present and that being real Christian laymen is our vocation after graduation. We all need help to fulfill our vocations as God has planned them for us."

"Perhaps, if we students would pray in a group, asking God for help in our vocations, He may give us more grace than if we prayed for such help individually. "For where two or three are gathered together for my sake, there am I in the midst of them." Therefore, may I suggest that each week students from a different college of the University gather as a group for the Holy Hour and pray together for the grace to know and the courage to fulfill their vocations."

"Since I am a Commerce student, may I further suggest that the Commerce School be given the privilege of starting this group adoration at the Holy Hour next Thursday."

"Sincerely yours,"

(Signed)

Good! It's a deal. Next Thursday, then, all students registered in the College of Commerce are specially invited to make this Holy Hour--4:30 to 5:30. The priests and Brothers will assemble with you as they do each Thursday. Our prayers will be joined with yours that God may indicate by His grace what each must do in order to obey Him according to divine plan... . True obedience is love in action.

Is The Notre Dame Environment Conducive To Prayer?

The golden statue of Our Lady dominates the entire campus and the surrounding countryside. Planes flying their courses Chicago-bound use the golden dome as a prominent landmark. For us who know, this statue is not a lifeless symbol but a sign that signifies a spirit characteristic of Notre Dame. . . Near St. Mary's lake a replica of the Grotto at Lourdes is a favorite rendezvous . . . Outdoors stations of the cross stretch up along St. Joseph's lake to an impressive Calvary group in the woods near Moreau Seminary. . . There are busy hall chapels and the "rush" of communicants. . . In the Main Church perpetual adoration is held on First Fridays, during the month of October, the Christmas novena for parents, Lent and the month of May. . . In classrooms crucifixes remind each student of his daily task: TAKE UP THY CROSS AND FOLLOW ME. . . Outstanding is the unfailing example of classmates whose influence is a powerful force which makes Notre Dame--Notre Dame.
