Halloween: Tuesday is the Vigil of the Feast of All Saints, a day of fast and abstinence. Those who have reached the use of reason must abstain from meat as on Fridays; those who are twenty-one and over must fast and abstain, unless dispensed by legitimate authority. Students, faculty members and employees are dispensed from this obligation whenever they eat on campus, and "provided they do their work." This privilege is restricted to eating on campus only. When eating off campus you are subject to the general law of the Church as applied in the Fort Wayne diocese. (Therefore, let Halloween 'deviltees'--window-soapers and trick-or-treaters--confine their off campus snacks to cheese and egg sandwiches.)

To the Liturgy Club: Many thanks for faithfully promoting October adoration. Freshmen who are interested in joining Liturgical Life to learn more about the Mass and other liturgical functions meet Father McAuliffe after Sunday Benediction, or in his room, 4th floor Zahm.

Plenary Indulgences for the Poor Souls: Beginning at noon of the Feast of All Saints and continuing until Midnight, November 2, you may gain for the Poor Souls a full (plenary) remission of the punishment due to their sins. This indulgence may be gained at each visit to the Main Church during the time mentioned above. For each visit one must say 6 Our Fathers, 6 Hail Marys and 6 Glorias, and include in your prayers the intentions of the Holy Father.

On the Feast of the Poor Souls: Each priest is privileged to celebrate 3 Masses. Among genuine Catholics there is the pious custom of hearing, if possible, 3 Masses on this day for deceased mothers, fathers, relatives and friends.

Like your missal? While attending a play we are curious about what's going on. The Holy Sacrifice is a drama of great import and consequence to you. But you will not appreciate fully what's going on at the altar unless you pray the Mass with the celebrant. For this use a missal which has the English translations of all the parts of the Mass. . . . The Liturgy Club secured an ample supply of the latest St. Andrew Daily Missals at reduced cost and at prices to meet your pocketbook. Those are still available. Come to 106 Dillon (next door to the Prefect of Religion) between 6 and 7 o'clock any weekday night.

Air R. O. T. C. The Notre Dame unit will attend the 9 o'clock Mass in a body, November 1. Kindly come ten minutes early so as to occupy the reserved pews.

Assumption Mass allowed November 1. A decree by the Sacred Congregation of Rites permits one High Mass in honor of the Assumption of Our Lady. The 11 o'clock will be a Solemn High. The Mass will be that for the feast of the Assumption, August 15. All other Masses must be proper.

*****

Consecration to the Immaculate Heart: At Fatima Our Lady requested our consecration to her Immaculate Heart. This will be made in a group during the 6:45-7:45 Holy Hour in her honor Wednesday night. Those who have already consecrated themselves may renew the consecration as it should be renewed on feasts of Our Lady.

Family Rosary Pledge. Thursday evening the local Knights of Columbus will canvass the halls for your Family Rosary pledge. Your signature will not oblige you under pain of sin. Although pledge cards are printed in Family Rosary format, you may sign it without involving your family.

First Friday and First Saturday this week. Keep stopping but move a little faster. Prayers: the brother of Jos. Schrantz (O-C) was killed recently. Two girls were critically injured in an auto accident. Friend of L. Dondanville will be operated.
