Conditions For Gaining Holy Year Indulgence.

It has been suggested that one day be chosen for all the students to gain the plenary indulgence attached for fulfilling the conditions laid down for the Holy Year Indulgence. These conditions were brought to your attention February 19, in the Bulletin. The day chosen is Thursday, the feast of Corpus Christi. Keep in mind that if you fulfil these conditions, and if God accepts them, there will be a remission of all temporal punishment due to your sins. That's a complete whitewash; if you die immediately afterwards without sinning again. . . heaven is yours; purgatory has been by-passed.

1. CONFESSION AND HOLY COMMUNION: The annual confession made to fulfill the Easter Duty, and the prescribed Paschal Communion, do not suffice for the purpose of gaining the Jubilee Indulgence. Confession and Communion must be non-obligatory. Specify by intention that this is my Jubilee confession, this is my Jubilee Communion.
2. Visits to Church: The four required visits may be made to Sacred Heart Church. Interrupt each visit by going outside the church. . . You may return immediately without waiting for any determined period of time. You could make all four within a half-hour.
3. Prayers: In addition to the prayers that personal piety might suggest, the following prayers must be recited on the occasion of each of the four visits to the church.
 - a. The Our Father, Hail Mary and Gloria, five times each.
 - b. The Our Father, Hail Mary and Gloria, once each for the intentions of the Holy Father.
 - c. The Apostles' Creed. . . "I believe in God, the Father Almighty. . . ."
 - d. The prayer: "Hail, Holy Queen", once. (Cf. page 27, Notre Dame Prayer Book)

Note: The Jubilee Indulgence may be gained for oneself or for the dead. . . It may be gained as often as the prescribed works are fulfilled; but the Confession and Communion should be completed before the second Indulgence is started. . . The Jubilee Communion must be made in the state of grace.

Random Shots.

From whistle-listener to clock-watcher: sun time lags standard time by 15 minutes. The Bulletin was wrong, therefore. Will this keep the beagle off our trail? . . . Next Monday the K.C.'s will canvass the halls for discarded clothing. It will go to the local St. Vincent De Paul Society; to Father Blase's poor Indians in Lukachukai, Arizona; to war victims; to the needy within our radiant vicinity.

Question from a freshman: "Is cheating in quizzes and exams sinful? Answer: Absolutely yes. It involves the use of the most immoral principle in the world--that the end justifies an evil means. Furthermore, it may easily be a mortal sin because eligibility for the draft to a large extent is determined by academic average. It is spurious reasoning that attempts to justify cheating because of the goodness of the end to be gained.
