

But Heaven Is My Destination.

If you know that life is a trip to Heaven, you are a wise man. Leon Floy puts it this way: "There is but one sadness, and that is for us not to be Saints."

There are times when every one of you sits down to ponder this ultimate goal in relation to your life -- and that particular path that will lead you unfailingly to this happy destination.

Most people choose the Married State. Others choose the Priesthood. Some choose the Religious Life in its varying aspects. Others remain in the world, yet dedicate their lives to God.

Which Path To Choose?

That is an important question, involving the major decision of your life. A mistake in this matter may cause you to miss your ultimate destination; and that would be a tragedy past all measure!

The Forum On States In Life.

With the grace of God, you can discover with a fair degree of certainty which path is mapped out for you -- the path that will give you peace of mind and heart here on earth, and assure your ultimate sanctification.

So important is this decision which each must make, the Department of Religion will set aside 4 evenings to discuss the signs, qualifications demanded by each path in life. It is an effort to help you discover yourself, and to chart your course -- that there may be no failure in arriving at your destination.

Courtship and Marriage -- will be treated tomorrow night by a panel of experts at 8 p.m. in the Auditorium of the McDevine Science Hall.

PRAYERS Deceased: Peter Kearney; Martha Jean Paulin. Ill: Father of Dick Ellis of Dillon Hall; Edith Yost; aunt of Joe Kasar of Dillon Hall; friend of Bill Kirsch of Bodin Hall; Father Duane Patrick, C.S.C., in Bengal, India; Father Belovoy, C.S.C.; Msgr. Nothofer, uncle of Dick Jordan. Dick Priest of Morrissey Hall was operated on yesterday (appendicitis). Marty O'Connor (police) continues very ill in Memorial Hospital. 3 Special Intentions.