

Tonight, 6:45: The Novena to the Sorrowful Mother

Field Mass Tomorrow

Tomorrow morning at 9 a.m., Notre Dame will pay tribute to her War Dead. The Field Mass will be celebrated by former Chaplain Robert Woodward, CSC. A brief eulogy will be delivered by Father James Norton, CSC, former Navy chaplain. All branches of the Service at Notre Dame will be represented at the Military Mass. So will Moreau choir and the band be there. It is a colorful ceremony that you will not want to miss. Communion will be distributed at the Mass to the Service personnel.

The location -- The Memorial Door (East) outside Sacred Heart Church, at 9 a.m.

Dispensation Tomorrow

Although tomorrow is an Ember Day, those who leave the campus are exempted from both fast and abstinence by virtue of a dispensation granted to the Archdiocese.

Attention: Off-Campus Men

The St. Vincent de Paul annual Clothes Drive is almost over. If collectors missed you, leave your old duds in the Dillon hall pamphlet room. We'll see to it that they are forwarded to the proper agency. And, as they say down in Indiana: "May the Lord take a liking to you!" for your goodness.

Sunday Is The Deadline

Trinity Sunday is the deadline for the Easter Duty obligation. If something has kept you from the obligation until now, drop into the box tonight. You'll feel better in every way -- you'll even do better in the exams. A man with a worried conscience is of no good to either himself or to anyone else.

Goodby Until September

With this issue, the Bulletin rolls down its sleeves for the summer. But we hope that you will remember some of the things we said while you are on vacation. If you have taken to heart these frequent reminders; and if you have received Holy Communion daily, or almost daily -- you have not only acquired a fine bank account in heaven, but you have also made an excellent preparation for a good summer, and a good Catholic life. If you have rejected all your opportunities, or most of them, there is still time to pray for good sense.

Keep in mind St. Peter's advice on good example: "Having your conversation good among the gentiles; that whereas they speak against you as evil-doers, they may, by the good works which they behold in you, glorify God in the day of visitation... For so it is the will of God, that by doing well you may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men." -- 1 St. Peter, 2:12, 15.

And now go home and blow! You may have been small potatoes at Notre Dame, but you will be a big shot in the home town. For 9 long months you have told us here what a great place is the native village -- what horrible places are Notre Dame and all Indiana. The next 3 months will witness the reverse process -- you'll find the village uncouth, backward, dull; you will tell them how much better we do things at Notre Dame. But just remember this: ACTIONS SPEAK LOUDER THAN WORDS. If your conduct this summer is such as people have a right to expect of Our Lady's men, come back in September and welcome! You are the best salesman in the world because are also the product of this, Her household. Her good name is in your keeping. God bless you!

PRAYERS: Deceased: father of Gene Metzger, '54 (formerly of Morrissey Hall).
