

University of Notre Dame
Religious Bulletin
September 27, 1954

Wake Up The Juniors

Many Juniors, like the Sophomores, didn't make the opening of their Class Mission, last night. Maybe they were tired from the strenuous weekend; or got sidetracked by visitors; or maybe the romantic return to St. Mary's had them befuddled. Whatever the excuse, they missed part of their education -- something they are entitled to receive.

Let's don't call them Dodgers yet -- because we expect them this evening. The Sophs took courage as time moved on. Surely, Juniors have a sense of values equal to the Underclassmen!

A mission at the beginning of the school year is an essential part of a Notre Dame education. It's the opportunity to get set for the months ahead -- maybe to clear away the debris of the summer through a good confession. Most important -- it's a time of special grace. Last year, we had some Juniors make the mission, and get set for the year spiritually. After a few months they suddenly moved into Eternity!

That's right. This could be your last opportunity to make a mission, too!

Stop Me If

Although it's been a busy and exciting weekend at Notre Dame, chances are that the family may be a little lonesome -- and all because the circle grew smaller with your departure. If you haven't written to them yet, get busy NOW.

For Angels In The Outfield

Off-Campus men may pick up copies of the Religious Bulletin at Dillon hall -- in the chapel vestibule, or in the pamphlet room. They will do well to visit the pamphlet rack for a scapular medal and chain, or to note the rating on movies, plays, books. Brief treatises will bring them up to date on timely topics, too. Take what you want.

Asking The Charity Of Your Prayers

Freshmen will want to know that we have a custom, here at Notre Dame, of remembering in our prayers the deceased, the sick, and the unfortunate among members of the Notre Dame family. Report names to the Prefect of Religion, at 117 Dillon Hall. And someday, when you need prayers, a good samaritan will bring it to the attention of another generation of Notre Dame men who will then pray for you in your hour of need.

Deceased: Larry Kallfelz, '54 (killed in auto accident July 30); mother and father of John Nokes, Freshman-to-be (auto accident); Louis P. Malone, '14; mother of John Bierbusse, '54; mother of George DeKime; father of Rev. Cornelius Laskowski, CSC; Brother Coleman, CSC; mother of Father Henry Stegman, CSC; father of Leonard Kaylor (Athletic Dept.); Professor Jose Caparo, '08; Dr. Albert Zahm, '83; father of Rev. John Reddington, CSC; father of Mother Vera, SND; father of Richard Hidding, '52; mother of R.C. Crnkovic; mother of Louis O'Hanley, '27; father of Bill Nagengast; mother of Joe Cheney; father of Leo Weisbecker; Vincent Schmidt; Dick Dytrich; father of Rev. William Morrison, CSC; father of Lieut. Thomas Fitzgerald, USN (formerly of the Notre Dame ROTC); brother of Father McGrath, CSC (plane crash); mother of Father Benaglia, CSC.

Ill: Marsha Peterson (polio); daughter of Richard Glass, '50; Norm Mirrington, '49, and his father, mother, and sister; brother of Jim Danaher, '44 (polio); mother of Rev. John Reedy, CSC. Six special intentions.