Instructions For Tonight's Procession

Point of Assembly: Tonight, when the church bells ring at 7:45, the rector of your hall will also sound the hall bells. You are to assemble outside your hall as indicated by the direction following the name of each hall:

Alumni-----	north	Dillon --	north	Lyons ----	east	Walsh --	east
Badin-----	south	Farley --	west	Morrissey-	south	Zahm ---	south
Breen-Phillips--	west	Fisher --	north	St. Ed's--	south
Cavanaugh-----	north	Howard --	east	Sorin ----	east

Each hall group will be marshaled and led by members of the particular hall council, with the assistance of the rector of the hall.

Order of March : Start to march at 7:55 over the following routes:

- 1) East side of campus (south group) will be led by Cavanaugh, followed by Breen-Phillips. Proceed past the Main Building, circle the rear of the church, and enter the Grotto by wide steps nearest the church.
- 2) East side of campus (north group) will be led by St. Edward's, followed by Zahm and Farley. Proceed past the rear of the Main Building, straight west to the north steps of the Grotto.
- 3) South side of campus will be led by Sorin, followed by Walsh, Alumni, and Dillon. Proceed north to church, then west on the road that winds past Corby, to the Grotto.
- 4) West side of campus will be led by Howard, followed by Badin, Morrissey, Lyons, and Fisher. Proceed north, past the library, to the Grotto.

Candles -- provided by the campus K. of C. council, and distributed by the Blue Circle, will be handed to you at the door of each hall.

Rosary: Father Barry will lead the Rosary over the loud-speaker. It should be taken up by all marchers as soon as they hear his voice. Bring your Rosary.

At the Grotto -- prepared by the Third Order of St. Francis -- follow this program:

- a) Hymn: "On This Day, O Beautiful Mother" (1 verse)
- b) Short talk by Father Alfred Mendez, C.S.C.
- c) "O Salutaris Hostia"; then consecration to Blessed Mother
- d) "Tantum Ergo" -- Blessing -- "Holy God, etc." (1 verse)

Take positions close to the Grotto-altar. Stand during the entire ceremony. Father Moloney will lead the congregational singing.

In case of rain -- Go directly from your halls to Sacred Heart Church.

Tomorrow evening: The Singing of hymns begins at the Grotto, under the sponsorship of the Freshmen. It will continue each evening during May at 6:15 -- Monday through Friday. Everyone is invited to participate. This is not something new; rather, it is the revival of an old Notre Dame custom.
