

University of Notre Dame
Religious Bulletin
September 28, 1955

Tonight, The Junior Mission

Tonight at 6:45, In Sacred Heart Church, the Junior Class Mission begins under the able direction of Father Joseph Barry, C.S.C., a former Army Chaplain. Most of you know him very well already; he has been dispensing kindness and counsel, in addition to the Sacraments, for many years. His experience in the parish, in the armed forces as a chaplain, and on campus here -- all provide an excellent background for his talks to the Juniors these next three days. Fortunately, by local standards, he doesn't talk too long at any one time. Of course you're busy and have a million things to do these days. The Mission schedule is geared for your convenience under these handicaps. We start early this evening (6:45), and continue with morning and evening talks only. The entire day is left free for other activities.

Be good to yourself. Come over and listen to him. It can turn out to be the best and wisest investment of your time, this year. And for those of you who haven't as yet gone to Confession since your return -- there will be 8 confessors available after Benediction.

Still On The Job

Off-Campus men especially will want to know that late Communion facilities are available in the chapels of Cavanaugh, Howard, and Dillon halls. In Dillon, facilities for Confession and Communion are available until noon; in the other hall chapels until 9:30 A.M. only.

Late morning facilities have been discontinued in Sorin. But Father Kane will still be available there each evening for consultation, and for Confession.

Off-Campus students will find copies of the Religious Bulletin available in the vestibule of Dillon hall chapel, and at the Dillon pamphlet rack. Drop in on your way to or from the caf; get a copy, and take one for your neighbor. Dillon chapel is also the spot where you can catch a late daily Mass at 8:30.

Communion facilities at Dillon are especially geared to your convenience -- every 10 minutes throughout the morning until noon. Of course, the ideal arrangement is to receive Our Lord at Mass. But for those who can't get to Mass, Communion is still available. At such times, we ask that you make a decent preparation and thanksgiving as becomes anyone who understands the business at hand.

Written Home Yet ?

Of course you have been busy about a hundred odds and ends, since your arrival. But the folk have been wondering about you. Forgetting about the rest of the family is something we can't let happen -- it qualifies you for the Board of Directors of that infamous group -- the Low-Forehead Set. Write home tonight!

News Item

"A plain bar of iron is worth $5. This same bar when made into horseshoes is worth $10.50. If made into needles it is worth $4,285.00. If turned into balance wheels for watches, it becomes worth $250,000.00. This is also true of another kind of material -- YOU. Your value is determined by what you make of yourself."

You might keep that in mind as we settle down to the business of the schoolyear.

PRAYERS-- Deceased John Murphy, '98; uncle of John Walsh (O-C). ILL: wife of Ray Kroener (O-C). 2 special intentions.