Cotillion couples: come early for the 9 o'clock Mass, Sunday in Sacred Heart Church.

And Now Our Own Household

This Sunday at all the Masses on campus, the offering will be taken up for the Notre Dame men in Bengal. Last week, we asked you to contribute to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith -- and you did pretty well. This week, our effort is in behalf of our own Notre Dame men. Since there is to be a Mass in each hall, at the hour designated by the rector, see to it that you don't come empty handed, and that you don't miss the basket when it comes your way. Notre Dame missionaries far from the campus will pray for you for keeping them alive. Just as we feel an obligation to support the team, to cheer, to participate in Notre Dame campus life, so we should count the work of Notre Dame men in Bengal on the same level -- an activity deserving our full co-operation. The real test of devotion is a donation this week.

Tonight The Novena

Are you looking for some help in your classwork? Are you bothered by particular temptations? Is there an undesirable domestic condition in your family circle? Is anyone sick at home? Are there financial problems in your family? Is the time coming for you to make an important decision?

There is no better solution for any problem-- no matter what it is -- than Our Lady of Sorrows. Her Novena begins tonight at 6:45 in Sacred Heart Church. There will be a Pep Rally later. And after the rally a big Sophomore dance!! But the Novena begins early enough for all to attend (Yes, Sophomores, bring your guests). It will terminate early enough (7:15) for you to get in on all the other festivities. Come!

It is just like Notre Dame to put first things first. That's why we have the Novena, and then the rally, and finally the dance. That's the Notre Dame rating of values.

Can you use the intercession of the Mother of God? Pity the man who thinks he can't!

Teen-Age T-V Tastes

According to the Sunday Visitor poll, in which 13,141 participated in more than 40 cities, 93% of homes have T-V sets. Teen-Agers use them 16 or 17 hours each week. More important: they don't like vulgarity, low comedy, and scanty dresses. They like Gobel, Ed Sullivan, Perry Como, Eddie Fisher, Loretta Young, and Jackie Gleason, though the "owl-eyed butter-ball is scored for some vulgarity. But he gets off easily in comparison with Bob Hope and Martha Ray who are roasted for their vulgarity." Loretta Young, they think, does most to advance religion, culture, and high ideals among youth on a show of a non-Religious nature. And 90% of those questioned do not belong to fan clubs -- which they regard as "stupid".

How does this healthy, wholesome outlook rate with your own tastes?

Catholic Youth Week

This Sunday marks the beginning of Catholic Youth Week -- under the auspices of the campus branch of the NFCCS. Its aim: to impress upon the Catholic college man his responsibility of leadership in the lay apostolate, especially in parish life.
