

Tomorrow is First Friday -- the day we pray for a Happy Death.

University of Notre Dame
Religious Bulletin
May 1, 1958

Tomorrow: Begin your Mother's Day Novena with Mass,
Communion and the Rosary.

Instructions For Tonight's Procession

Point of Assembly: Tonight, when the church bells ring at 7:45, the rector of your hall will also sound the hall bells. You are to assemble outside your hall as indicated by the directions following the name of each hall:

Alumni ----- north	Dillon - north	Keenan---- east	Stanford-- east
Badin----- south	Farley - west	Lyons ---- east	Walsh----- east
Breen-Phillips - west	Fisher - north	Morrissey- south	Zahm ----- south
Cavanaugh ----- north	Howard - east	St. Ed's - south	Pangborn - north
			Sorin ----- east

Each hall group - will be marshaled and led by members of the particular hall council, with the assistance of the rector of the hall.

Order of March: start to march at 7:55 over the following routes:

- 1) East side of campus (south group) will be led by Cavanaugh, followed by Breen-Phillips. Proceed past the Main Building (front), circle the rear of the church, and enter Grotto by the wide steps nearest the church.
- 2) East side of campus (north group) will be led by St. Ed's, followed by Zahm and Farley. Proceed past the rear of the Main Building, straight to the north steps of the Grotto.

Stanford and Keenan will proceed north, and take the lake road to the Grotto.

- 3) South side of campus will be led by Sorin, followed by Walsh, Alumni, and Dillon. Proceed north to church, then west on the road that winds past Corby, to the Grotto.
- 4) West side of campus
 - a) Morrissey and Lyons will use the Lyons arch, and take the lake road to the Grotto.
 - b) Howard will lead, followed by Badin, Fisher, and Pangborn. Proceed north past library to Grotto.

Candles -- provided by the Knights of Columbus, and distributed by the Blue Circle, will be handed to you at the main door of each hall.

Rosary: Father Barry will lead the Rosary over the loud speaker. You are to respond only -- as you march.

At the Grotto -- follow this program:

- a) Hymn: The Lourdes Pilgrim Hymn, "Immaculate Mary" (2 verses)
- b) Short sermon by Father Philip Schaerf, C.S.C.
- c) "O Salutaris Hostia" -- then the consecration to the Blessed Mother.
- d) "Tantum Ergo" -- the Blessing -- "Holy God, etc." (1 verse).

Take positions close to the Grotto altar as directed. Stand during the entire ceremony. Father McAuliffe will lead the congregational singing. Receptacles for candle stubs are located at all Grotto exits. In case of rain, go directly to the church from your halls.

Tomorrow: Adoration begins at 10 a.m. for Zahm, Farley, and Stanford halls.