*It takes more

TO MAKE GOOD GRADES! IF YOU HAVEN'T YET BEGUN TO MAKE THE NOVENA FOR EXAMINATIONS, YOU PROBABLY HAVEN'T BEEN STUDYING MUCH EITHER. THE NOVENA IS NO SUBSTITUTE FOR STUDY, BUT IF YOU BEGIN IT TOMORROW THERE STILL MAY BE TIME TO DO SOME STUDYING.

- HAVE YOU FOUND ANYTHING FOR the St. Vincent De Paul Society? When packing up, don't forget that the place to deposit your old duds is in the Society's box somewhere on the first floor of your hall.
- HOPE TO SEE MORE OF YOU at the May Devotions at 6:30 this evening. We assemble every evening at the Grotto for five minutes, four prayers, and two hymns. You can be there in the time it takes to finish your ice cream cone.
- STUDENT SPIRITUALITY is the title of the latest pamphlet to be prepared by the National Catholic Action Study Bureau. It is available at the Pamphlet Room in Dillon Hall. Stop and pick up a copy.
- SORIN, DILLON, and PANGBORN residents take their last turn for this year in keeping watch before the Blessed Sacrament exposed in the Lady Chapel from Noon until 4:45. Then, the day after tomorrow, Keenan, Badin, Lyons, and Howard residents have their last turn.
- TONIGHT AT 7:45, the Knights of Columbus hold their last regular meeting for this year and begin planning for their fiftieth anniversary year on campus. New officers will be introduced. Food after the meeting.

● LAST WEEK, on the occasion of the 25th Anniversary of the founding of the Legion of Decency, Pope John XXIII urged U.S. Catholics to remain strong in their support of the Legion. The Holy Father encouraged Catholics here to "remain unflagging in their support of the Legion, to take pains to find out, before attending any film, the moral classification given by the Legion, and to be faithful and generous in following its recommendations, which are intended solely for the greater good of their souls and for the defense of the noblest values of our civilization."

PRAYERS. Deceased: Uncle of Micky Crystal of Cavanaugh; former State Secretary Foster Dulles; friend of Joe Thummess of Dillon. Ill: Nephew of Prof. Vincent E. Smith of the Philosophy Dept.

IN ABOUT TEN DAYS, most of you will have finished exams and will either be thinking about the summer months of driving ahead or will already have your hands on the wheel of the family car.

IN THE COURSE OF YOUR TRAVELS, you will be passing signs similar to these--signs that should mean something to you. Are you in the habit of observing them, and are you in the habit of obeying them?

IN YOUR PRE-TAKE-OFF PREPARATIONS, make a mental note of the Fifth Commandment: "Thou shalt not kill !" This definitely applies to killing with an automobile, and don't forget it. Granted, accidents over which we have no control, do sometimes happen. Be sure, however, when you start your summer driving that the Fifth Commandment holds especially on the highways. And often give it a place in your examination of conscience. We frequently think of the "Fifth" in another context, or as applying to strangers. This summer, drive in such a way that you will convince others that you're aware of the relationship of traffic laws to morality.
