● CENSORSHIP will be the subject of a lecture in the Law Auditorium on Wednesday evening at 8:00 P.M. Fr. Harold Gardiner, S.J., Literary Editor of America magazine and the author of The Catholic Viewpoint on Censorship, will give the lecture, another in the Student Senate's Distinguished Lecture Series. Very worthwhile.

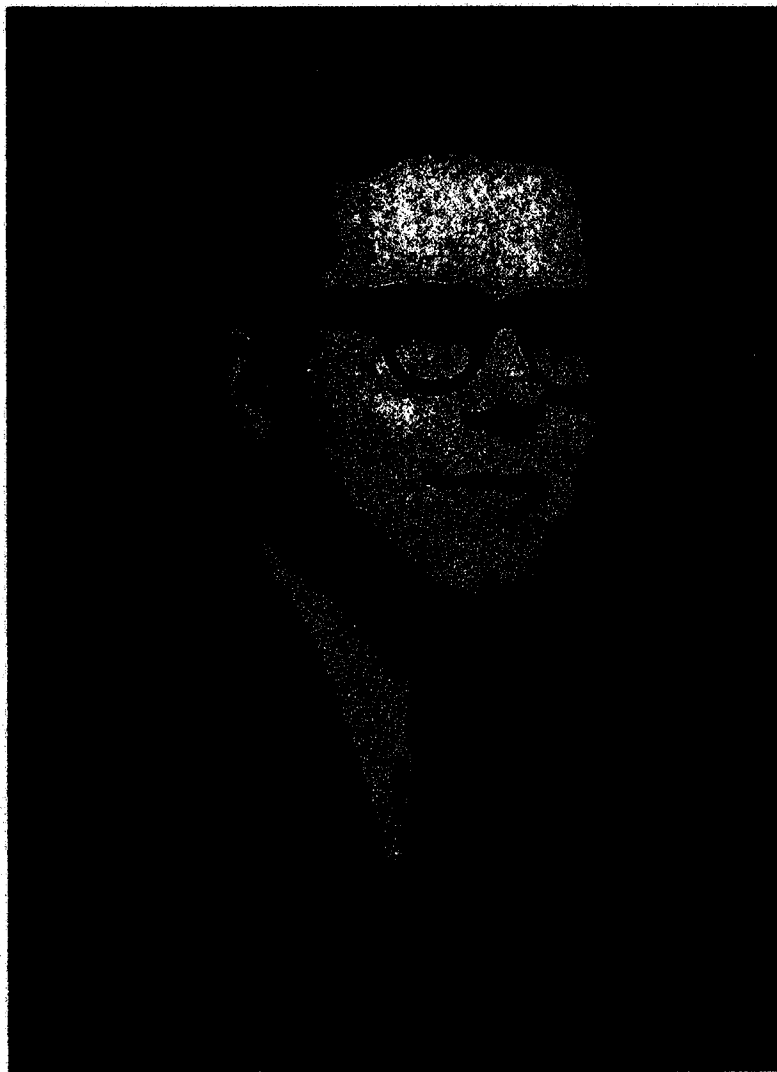

● THE BISHOP OF LEIRIA whose diocese includes Fatima, recently told a gathering that the date for opening the third part of the message of Our Lady has not yet been settled. A decision on the opening of the sealed envelope containing the message will probably not be made before the end of the year, the Bishop said. Meanwhile, the envelope containing the message remains in the archives of the diocese of Leiria, where it was deposited by the former Bishop.

● A SOLEMN REQUIEM MASS for the repose of the soul of Tony Champagne, will be offered at the request of the Senior Class tomorrow evening at 5:10 in Sacred Heart Church. All seniors who may be free at that time are asked to attend the Mass. Tony's funeral will take place on Wednesday morning in Holy Redeemer Church at Lincoln Park, Michigan at 10:30 A.M. Seniors desiring to attend the funeral should contact Dick Corbett, 337 Sorin Hall.

● THE MARRIAGE INSTITUTE, this year, will feature talks on the following subjects: "Courtship for Marriage", "Two Sides of Marriage", "Sanity and Sex", "Love and Marriage", "Doctor's Viewpoint", "Success in Marriage". The talks are scheduled to begin at 7:00 P.M. and will be followed by a question and answer period of about thirty minutes duration. Seniors should plan to attend.

THE KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS will hold their last meeting of the semester, this evening at 7:45, in the Council chambers. All members are asked to attend to help with preparations for celebrating the Council's 50th Anniversary.

● THE NOVENA FOR EXAMINATIONS begins on Thursday, January 14. Prepare now, by getting to confession.

● PRAYERS. Deceased: Tony Champagne of Sorin; friend of Tom Rini of Sorin; grandmother of Charles Switzer of Morrissey; father of Bro. Borromeo, C.S.C.; James S. Devlin, '14; aunt and uncle of Sr. Michael, S.P.; friend of Tim Ryan of Sorin. Ill: Mother of Barry Hynes, Off-Campus; uncle of Tom Larkin of Badin; one-year old child of Vince Doyle; Lt. Philip Iosue, Dept. of Naval Science, his wife and two children (auto accident). Three special intentions.

ONCE AGAIN, in the early hours of yesterday morning, we were reminded that there will come to all of us who are faithful, "A golden hour in Heaven, when your sons, O Notre Dame kneel to their Leader down, there by the hem of your gown."

THE SUDDEN WAY in which death came to Tony Champagne was a reminder to all of us that we must be ever prepared. It served also to prove again the bond of prayer and unity that prevails among Our Lady's sons. This is best told in the words of one of Tony's friends who described the atmosphere in Sorin Hall as word of the accident reached the campus. "The group had been hit. An unsuspected strike that affected the entire hall. A few filtered toward the chapel--then quite a few more. It was past midnight. The atmosphere in the hall almost immediately changed. Not melodramatically; not with too many overt signs; just the look in the mens' eyes; something changed. In the chapel, the Rosary began. Soon, over fifty men

R.I.P.

O Lord and Lifegiver, enable me to understand the pattern of human life, in whose early years I now stand.

Confirm in me a trust in Divine Providence which rules all things sweetly.

By Thy gift of Counsel take away the limitations on my soul which make it timid and uncertain, and give me the strength to be constant and devoted in the cause of truth.

Help me to be numbered among the merciful as through the gift of Counsel I see the Divine pattern which gives meaning to human life.

Illumine the sorrows of human existence in the light of Divine destiny, so that I shall accept disappointments and loss with a serene soul.

Enlighten me to appreciate that no triumphs in this life are worthwhile unless they bring me closer to Thee Who, with the Father and the Son livest and reignest for ever and ever. Amen.

were praying, for one of their kind, at 1:20 in the morning. Some were in robes; some in suits, some in khakis and T shirts. Four decades had been said. With an unsteady voice, one of Tony's close friends was leading the others. The door opened; Father McGrath came back in and during a pause, said, "We've just received word from the hospital.....Tony is dead." Some caught their breath. A Rosary hit a pew-seat with an extended thud. Tony's friend tried to continue the Rosary, but then stopped; someone up front completed the Rosary...."pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen."

TONY'S FRIENDS will each have his own favorite story about Tony's good qualities. Few testimonies could be so unforgettable as the mute but all important story told by the worn Rosary, in his pocket and the Sacred Heart badge and scapular in his wallet.
