

RELIGIOUS BULLETIN

Vol. XI, No. 15

Wednesday, October 26, 1960

Notre Dame, Ind.

ON FRIDAY MORNING, at 10:00 the ceremonies of consecration for Bishop Alfred E. Mendez, C.S.C. will get under way. The procession will leave the Student Center at 10 o'clock. Hundreds of priests, twenty-five bishops, and the Cardinal Archbishop of New York will walk in the procession. The consecration ceremony will take place immediately before and during a Mass to be celebrated jointly by Cardinal Spellman and the bishop-elect. Invitations and tickets have been issued for the Mass. Students are welcome to attend and to sit wherever there is room, once the guests have been seated. Many of the guests will have come from Puerto Rico. Among them will be the new bishop's mother.

CARDINAL SPELLMAN.

BISHOP MENDEZ.

Prior to his appointment to the post of Director of Province Development, Bishop Mendez was associated with Notre Dame for seven years. He was a faculty member, Placement Director, and assistant to the Vice President for Business Affairs. We wish him much success as he undertakes a difficult assignment for the Holy Father.

● A SENIOR WRITES: "Here's an expression of my mother's, who has always accepted her problems with faith and complete confidence in the One Who gave them to her: DON'T ASK FOR SMALLER CROSSES, JUST PRAY FOR BROADER SHOULDERS."

● TOMORROW NIGHT AT 6:45, all who are interested in learning about the Third Order of St. Francis are asked to attend an explanation of the Tertiary way of life. The meeting will be held in 107 Howard Hall. The meeting will last a half hour. Subsequent meetings will be held at the same time and place on November 2nd and 3rd. All who wish to join now must attend all three meetings.

● THE WHITE RABBIT is becoming the sign of "a good time" and the motif of college dances from coast to coast. Homecoming dances from UCLA to Cornell and from Wisconsin to Florida have been turned into PLAYBOY formal parties. For a year or more we've been expecting that the time would come when it might be necessary to open the season here against the big-eyed, long-eared bunny. Well, my hardware's handy.

● PRAYERS. Deceased: Sam Hicks; George H. Cleary; Philip Gearon; brother-in-law of Mrs. Wm. Horrigan of Accounts Payable. Ill: Mike Kealy of Stanford requests prayers for his friend, Jim Boscacci, who suffered a broken neck in a swimming accident.

EVERY YEAR, OF LATE, on this the two-sixth of October, the big N-M store in Dallas unveils its suggestion for the ideal Christmas gift. Heading the list this year are His and Her private planes, a seven and a five-passenger Beechcraft, packaged and priced at the tidy sum of $176,000. Christmas, keep in mind, is still two months away.

IN RECENT YEARS, Christmas sales have all but obliterated any observance of Advent. And now there is a danger that during November the custom of praying for the souls in Purgatory will be forgotten.

HERE AT NOTRE DAME, there have been other years when we came up to the game with the Navy rated as 14-point underdogs. But this never kept the students from being mindful of the needs of the souls in Purgatory during the month of November. For forty years here, students have made a novena of Masses and Holy Communions for their loved ones who may still be in Purgatory. This year, the Novena will begin on November 2nd and continue through November 10th.

FILL OUT THE FORM PROVIDED BELOW AND DEPOSIT IT IN THE ENVELOPE YOU WILL FIND ON THE HALL BULLETIN BOARD.

EVERY DAY DURING THE NOVENA, the souls of those you list below will be remembered in the Masses offered at the main altar in Sacred Heart Church.

WHY NOT MAKE IT YOUR BUSINESS TO attend Mass every day during the Novena. Someone needs your prayers. And that someone could be your parents, brothers, or sisters.

Gene Boorman, CSC
Student Chaplain

Remembrance of THE HOLY SOULS IN PURGATORY

I Wish to Have These Departed Relatives and Friends Remembered:

