EXPOSITION

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament began at Noon today, in the Lady Chapel of Sacred Heart Church. Benediction is given each afternoon at 4:45. Once again, take note of the day assigned each of the halls for adoration, and plan to spend some time praying before the Blessed Sacrament on the day assigned your hall:

WEDNESDAY----Badin, Howard, Lyons, Keenan

THURSDAY-----Morrissey, Breen-Phillips, St Edward's

FRIDAY-----Zahm, Cavanaugh, Farley

MONDAY-----Alumni, Walsh, Fisher, Stanford

TUESDAY-----Dillon, Pangborn, Sorin

HIBERNIANS

Come Sunday night, Father Maloney will be in voice; Terry Jones and Robert O'Connell and the Irish Consul General will tell about how the snakes were driven out of Ireland; a cousin of the President will talk about "St Patrick and the President"; and all in all it should turn out to be a great night for the Irish as the Ancient Order holds its annual Hibernian Banquet in the Grand Ballroom of the Oliver. Tickets are available at 239 Sorin.

Social Action and the Liturgy

Over two decades ago Dom Virgil Michel wrote: "The entire life of the true Christian . . . must be a reflection and a further expression of his life at the altar of God, at the true source of the Christian spirit. If he is predominantly a passive Christian there, can we expect him to be an active Christian in his daily life out in the world?"

This is why those who are deeply interested in the social apostolate eventually also become interested in the liturgical apostolate, and vice-versa. For the two are cut from the same cloth. They need each other. And the Church needs both of them. Because the impact the Church will have on the world in the future depends to a great degree on the work of apostolic laymen in the temporal sphere and the degree to which these laymen make the liturgy the center of their lives.—AVE MARIA

THE RIGHT APPROACH TO LENT

I asked for strength, that I might achieve.
God, You made me weak, that I might humbly obey...

I asked for health, that I might do greater things.
God, You gave me infirmity, that I might do better things...

I asked for riches, that I might be happy.
God, You gave me poverty, that I might be wise...

I asked for power, that I might have the praise of men.
God, You gave me weakness, that I might feel the need of You...

I asked for all things, that I might enjoy life.
God, You gave me life, that I might enjoy all things...

I received nothing that I asked for,
But everything I had hoped for.

Almost in spite of myself,
My unspoken prayers were answered...

And, I am among all men, most richly blessed.
