ALAN TAIT

Friday's accident near Michigan City brought home once again the realization that our life can be changed without a moment's warning. The death of Alan Tait was the second to befall the Freshman Class this year. It is never easy to adjust to tragedy. Parents and close friends of the victim find it difficult to be consoled. But we have the consolation of knowing that the soul in the state of grace will soon see God, following death. There is also the added consolation of knowing that many will benefit from the tragedy by taking the occasion to return to the state of grace. Alan Tait's family is assured of the continued prayers of his classmates. Those prayers will be offered in many ways, in many places, and many times. Perhaps they would be best expressed in the old Irish prayer: "May the earth rest easy over you when, at the last, you lay out under it; may it rest so lightly over you, that your soul may be out from under it quickly, and up, and off, and on its way to God."

EXPOSITION

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament will continue through Wednesday. Devotions at the Grotto will also continue through Wednesday.

CONFESSION

Better take care of that general confession some evening this week, if you're one of those who has been putting it off. Any evening in Dillon.

NEW CARS

Seniors who will be receiving cars for graduation may arrange to have them blessed during the Commencement week-end. Stop at 116 Dillon or call Extension 348 to make arrangements.

PACKING?

This is the time of year for returning "borrowed" slide-rules, jackets, typewriters, golf clubs, and money. It's a good time for taking stock of your own possessions, too. Maybe you've lost something and have been putting off looking for it. Maybe you've misplaced your missal, shades, or car keys. Take five, stop by the Dean of Students' office and look over what has accumulated in the Lost and Found there this year.

REMEMBER

Remember, when you're packing and come across some article of clothing you've outgrown, take it down the hall and put it in the box marked "Clothes for the St Vincent De Paul Society."

IN YOUR CHARITY

Please pray for the following. Deceased: Alan Tait of Breen-Phillips; father of Mike Kerr of Alumni; father of Terence Boyle of Dillon; grandfather of Bill Fry, Off-Campus; grandfather of Terry Sauvain, Off-Campus; grandmother of Pat McMahon of Fisher. Ill: Mother of Chuck Sweeney, '38; Ann Redmond. Two special intentions.
