THE FIGHTING IRISH

For the first time this year, the Bulletin is printed in green. This is to honor the Fighting Irish. Last week in Oklahoma the team lived up to the name every minute of play, but especially in the goal line stand.

This weekend we'll find out whether the rest of the students deserve to be put in the same class. They will show it by fulfilling certain conditions.

- 1) Mass and Communion tomorrow morning, for the intentions listed in last Friday's Bulletin.
- 2) Thunderous cheering -- at the rally tonight, at the game tomorrow.
- 3) Gentlemanly conduct which includes courtesy to Purdue on the field tomorrow, courtesy to the rally speakers tonight, and conduct befitting Our Lady's men after the game. (Last week a few "irresponsibles" here at home blurred the luster of the Notre Dame reputation.)

It is almost irreverent to imply a comparison, but Notre Dame men are loyal to their Golden Lady -- before, during, and after the game.

Council Triduum

A Triduum of High Masses will be sung in Sacred Heart Church at 5:10 on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday next week to ask God's blessings on the Ecumenical Council. Plan to attend this Triduum. Your prayers in common have greater efficacy than private prayer, especially when that prayer is the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. This Triduum is not your voice, not even the voice of many, but the voice of the University of Notre Dame meeting its responsibility to the Mystical Body of Christ.

In Your Charity

Please pray for the following. Deceased: Dan Bowling, '60, (killed in an auto crash) brother of Bill Bowling; mother of Joseph ('61) and Robert Keating of Morrissey; grandfather of Larry Russo of Dillon; a fifth Sister of the seven Dominicans (Grand Rapids) involved in the auto accident last week; friend of Allan Frengle of Morrissey. Ill: Chuck O'Hara and Steve Kolski, injured in last week's game; Prof. Joseph Ryan; Dean O'Meara of the College of Law; uncle of Jim Galligan of Alumni.

First Saturday

Tomorrow is the first Saturday of the month. The basis of this devotion is found in the promise made by Our Lady to the three children at Fatima.

"I promise to help at the hour of death with the graces needed for salvation whoever, on the first Saturday of five consecutive months, shall confess and receive Holy Communion, say the Rosary, and meditate on the Rosary for fifteen minutes with the intention of making reparation to me."
