A child is born for us,
A son given to us.
Is 9:6

CHRIST HAS COME UNINVITED

Into this world,
this demented inn,
in which there is no room for him at all,
CHRIST HAS COME UNINVITED.

But because he cannot be at home in it,
because he is out of place in it,...

His place is with those who do not belong,
who are rejected
by power because they are regarded as weak, those who are discredited,
who are denied
the status of person,
tortured and exterminated.

With those for whom
there is no room,
Christ is present in this world.

He is mysteriously present in those for whom there seems to be nothing but the world at its worst. —Thomas Merton

Peace on Earth

RELIGIOUS
GRAPHICS CO

*Wolves and sheep will live together in peace,
and leopards will lie down with young goats.
Calves and lion cubs will feed together,
and little children will take care of them.*

*Cows and bears will eat together, and their calves and cubs will lie down in peace.
Lions will eat straw as cattle do.*

*Even a baby will not be harmed
if it plays near a poisonous snake.*

*On Zion, God's holy hill, there will be nothing
harmful or evil.
The land will be as full of knowledge of the Lord as the seas are full of water.*

Isaiah 11:6-9

O Come,
EMMANUEL

JESUS IS ALWAYS BEING BORN IN ME!

Christ would be good for us if for no other reason than the good will we all bring to one another at this time. The prophet Isaiah kept promising peace among men and women and creation. We never seem to achieve it; yet, Christmas is a bit, a taste, of that peace and harmony among us which is God's promise to us. The problem is our failure to choose to respond, to choose to trust and love which comes from deep faith. LET JESUS BE BORN IN ME, IN US, AND MAY I, WE, FIND JESUS IN BOTH THOSE CLOSE AND THOSE LEAST, IN HIS SACRAMENT, AND IN HIS WORD. MAY JESUS BE BORN AGAIN.
