

THE NOTRE DAME - SAINT MARY'S TRAVELING PLAYERS

present

A COMPANY OF WAYWARD SAINTS

By George Herman
Directed by Reginald F. Bain
Costumes by William T. Byrd Jr.

C A S T
(In order of appearance)

SCAPINO.....Lance Davis	Time: The present
PANTALONE.....Daniel C. Diggles
COLUMBINE.....Patricia Moran	Place: A stage
HARLEQUIN.....Charles Perrin
ISABELLA.....Amanda Crabtree	(A Company of Wayward Saints is produced by special arrangement with Samuel French, Inc.)
RUFFIANA.....M. Catherine Benjamin
CAPTANO.....John R. Sheehan Jr.
TRISTANO.....Daniel C. Diggles
DOTTORE.....Lance Davis	There may be an intermission but only the actors know when.

ABOUT THE COMPANY

The Director

Mr. Reginald F. Bain received his B.A. at Notre Dame, M.A. at the University of Arizona, and he completed his doctoral studies at the University of Minnesota, where he also taught. Before coming to Notre Dame-Saint Mary's Theatre, Mr. Bain was Chairman of the Drama Department at Regis College, where he also founded the Regis College Arena Theatre.

The Actors

Mabel Benjamin is a newcomer to the Speech and Drama Department. A drama major from New Orleans, Mabel hopes to continue in repertory theatre after graduation.

Amanda Crabtree learned about the stage from her father who runs a theatre. Although Amanda has had great success on stage, her future plans envision a career as a teacher rather than as a professional actress.

Lance Davis is a senior Speech and Drama major who hopes to go to graduate school after graduation with an eye to a professional career.

Daniel C. Diggles is majoring in Communication Arts. After graduation, Dan hopes to go on in Drama in graduate school.

Patricia Moran has been doing leading roles ever since she arrived at Saint Mary's, her most recent triumph being the title role in Candida.

Chuck Perrin has been singing in groups and with his sister in public concert since early high school. Chuck has his own radio show on the campus station. His latest album that he recorded with his sister is scheduled for a March release.

John Sheehan is spending his fifth year with the Notre Dame-Saint Mary's Theatre. John eventually hopes to have a career in opera.